The Class Of 1976 Achieves Independence But Faces New Horizons

Row 1: E. Gonzales (president), R. Noel (vice-president). Row 2: S. Tosten (secretary), M. Beard (treasurer), J. Bollinger (historian).

With the help of our advisors, Mrs. May and Mr. Eversole, we have had three successful projects. As sophomores we sold candy, as juniors we sold kits which contained household and Christmas items. We again sold candy this year. We are now enjoying being seniors and everything that comes with this, including senior pictures and graduation. Being the bicentennial class, we will wear red, white, and blue sashes and tassels.

We have enjoyed our years at WASHS. We thank our principal, counselors, and teachers for the help, guidance, and encouragement that they have given us.

Now we look to the future. Many of us will be leaving Waynesboro, at least for a while, to pursue various goals. But we will always remember our experience at WASHS.

Successful Magazine Sale Starts Sophomores Off Right

L. Geiger (vice-president), M. Baker (secretary), A. McCleaf (president), T. Barlup (treasurer).

Sophomores under the direction of Mr. Cutchall and Mr. Eberly got off to a late start. Once officers were finally elected the class decided to sell magazine subscriptions for their project. The drive was a great success.

Administration Gains New Personnel

Nancy Buterbaugh,

Principal

Patricia Heefner,
Attendance Secretary

With the arrival of Mrs. Dee Ann Fine, assistant principal to Mr. Barlup, and with the appointment of George Gottshall as athletic director, WASHS has undergone many changes. Disciplinary problems have decreased greatly, and a girls' gymnastics team has been added to the sports program.

The office secretaries are always on hand to make the job a little easier for the administrators. Mrs. Heefner, the attendance secretary, is also a new member of the staff.

The special service personnel are a very important part of Waynesboro Area Senior High School. The guidance office is always open to students when they have a problem or when they just feel like talking to someone. The counselors are always willing to lend an ear.

Our library offers its services to everyone. Many research books are available for students to use. Students also have a wide variety of fictional books to choose from for pleasure reading.

Three women who never receive much recognition are our aides, Mrs. M. Bender, Mrs. M. Rock, and Mrs. C. Winters. They assist our teachers in many ways, including in the classroom. One of the major jobs of the aides is to sort cards and place students in the English mini-courses here. Over all, they make the teachers' job a little easier.

Teacher's Prayer by James J. Metcalf

I want to teach my students how
To live this life on earth,
To face its struggles and its strife
And to improve their worth;
Not just the lesson in a book
Or how the rivers flow,
But how to choose the proper path
Wherever they may go;
To understand eternal truth
And know the right from wrong
And gather all the beauty of
A flower and a song.
For if I help the world to grow
In wisdom and in grace,
Then I shall feel that I have won
And I have filled my place.
And so I asked your guidance God
That I may do my part
For character and confidence
And happiness of heart.

The 1975-76 centennial year WAYARIAN is co-edited by Diana Kulp and Allen Kirk, without whose untiring efforts this yearbook would not have been possible. Pam Mellot is the underclassman section editor. Pam also assisted Rey Klingon, senior section editor, with senior write-ups and page layouts. Cindy Shockey, assisted by Kathie Rowe, is the faculty section editor. Anne McCleaf is the staff's chief writer, compiling and organizing information brought to her about all clubs and sports. Brian Mellot and Dan Fleagle are the artists responsible for the divider pages, designed from cut and pasted paper. Kitty McCoy and Ruth Shank are the typists, Kathy Stambaugh, Lisa Sung, and Carol Miller have developed the student life section. Cydney Savage, Dave Catalino and other literary staff members are roving workers helping with many aspects of the book. Allen Kirk, Dan Fleagle, Diane Kulp, Jim Hauber and Cas Kriechbaum assisted business staff advisor Robert Rankin in taking photographs this year. Chuck Joiner is the student business manager. The business staff is responsible for providing money for the yearbook. To do this they sell yearbook subscriptions and advertisements, and they sponsor an annual business staff dance.

We are particularly indebted to Robert Rankin for his endless hours of taking pictures, and developing film and printing photographs in the darkroom. The staff is also greatly indebted to THE RECORD HERALD for giving us access to their prints and negatives, and for allowing many of their photographs to be printed in the WAYARIAN. The WAYARIAN also wishes to thank the staff of the Renfrew museum for their generosity in allowing us to take photographs inside the museum. We are grateful to Herbert Frantz, who enthusiastically allowed us to photograph his horses and wagon in preparation for a hayride. We are highly pleased with all the professional photography done by Russell Bennett, Darryl Wolfe, and the Bennett Studio, and we particularly appreciate the special work done to achieve this year's color section and cover design. Literary staff advisor Diane Schwenker is extremely proud and appreciative of the countless hours of hard work done by this year's excellent staff in producing a fine and memorable yearbook.

Let Us Entertain You!

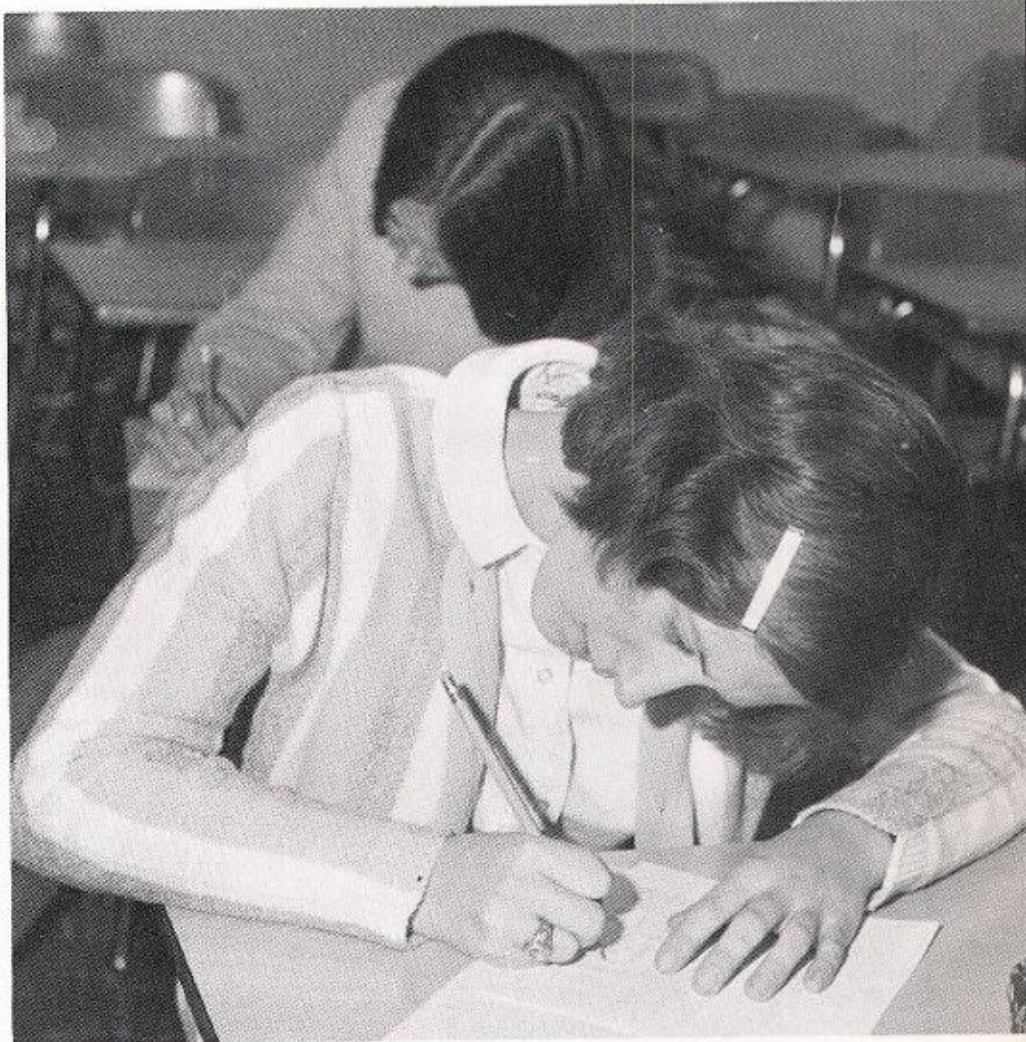

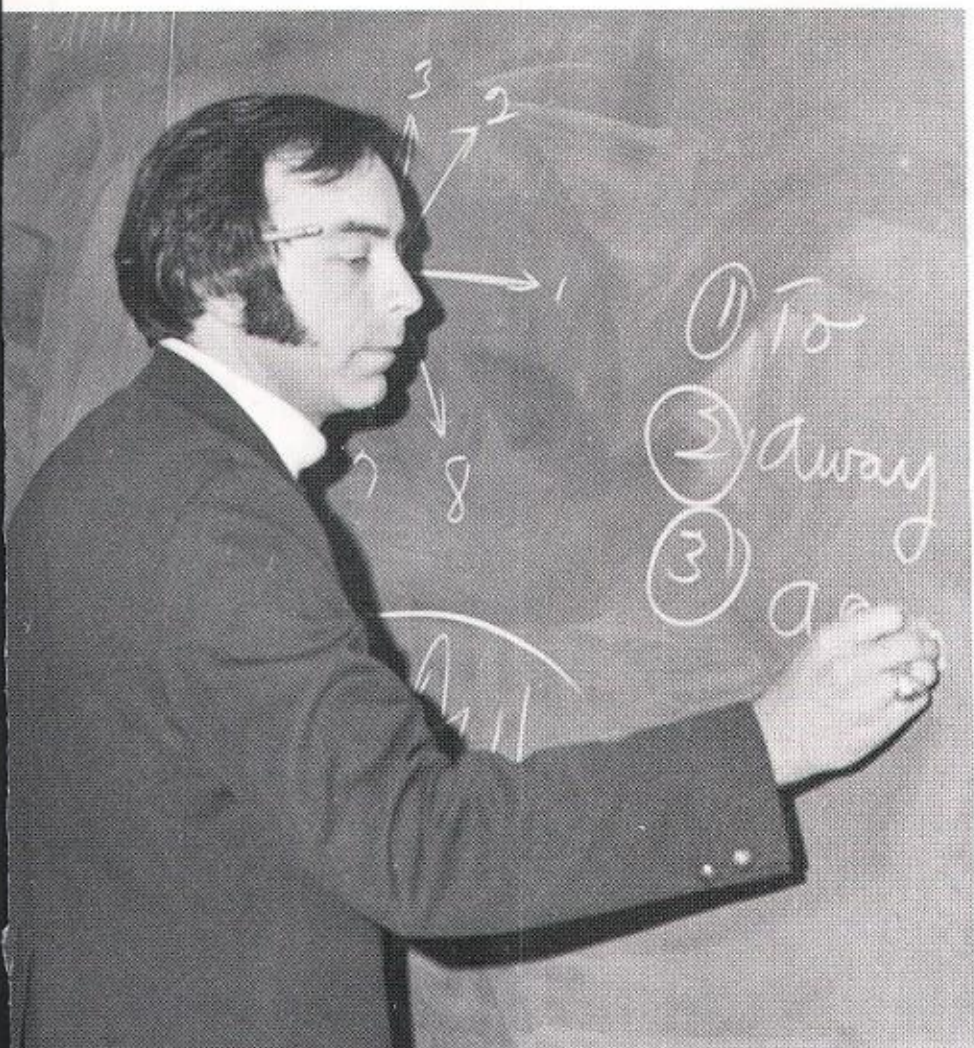

Drama Club welcomes any student with an interest in the theatre arts. Their various activities are designed to instruct budding dramatists in all aspects of acting and stage setting. The emphasis changes from year to year, presenting an opportunity to become well-rounded.

The club started off with a bang in 75-76 as members travelled to the Totem Pole Playhouse to work with the stage crew. The students assisted in striking sets and constructing new ones for several performances.

Advisor Thomas Rocks conducted a director's workshop for the theatre buffs, where everyone learned and practiced the basic techniques of directing.

There is no such person as a "dumb farmer." Today farmers are among the most educated people in the world. Their general knowledge of agriculture not only profits themselves and their families, but their respective communities also. That's why the earlier a prospective farmer starts learning about agriculture, the better.

Vocational Agriculture, an elective high school course, teaches the young farmer everything he or she needs to know about his future occupation.

Vocational Agriculture is also the forerunner to an outstanding youth organization, the Future Farmers of America. The FFA, over half a million members strong, gives an individual opportunities to strengthen his or her agricultural and business capabilities.

Founded in 1928, the FFA has charters in every state and in Puerto Rico. The FFA has its own constitution, adopted the year of its founding. The organization has its own by-laws, officers and even its own magazine, THE NATIONAL FUTURE FARMER. Officers in the Future Farmers of America are elected on a chapter, state and national basis. These offices give individuals the chance to develop leadership qualities and also help to make the FFA one of the best organized clubs in America.

The Blue Ridge chapter of the Future Farmers of America is one of 8000 FFA chapters across the United States. Since its founding, the FFA has been instrumental in the development of other such youth organizations all over the world. These groups are helping their respective countries to become prepared for better agriculture.

George Washington, considered the father of modern agriculture, is one of the models of the FFA. The National Future Farmers of America Center is located in Alexandria, Virginia on 35 acres of what was once Washington's estate. Washington is also the model for the FFA treasurer. The treasurer's job is to look over finances, just as Washington did with his farm accounts. Good record keeping is just as important to the farmer as his crops or livestock.

The Blue Ridge chapter of the Future Farmers of America has enjoyed a full and exciting year. The members formed the FFA seed co-operative to conduct their annual seed sale. Not only did this raise money, but it also helped to illustrate the concept of how a co-operative works. This year 1290 cases of citrus fruit from Florida were ordered by the families, friends and supporters of the FFA in the annual citrus fruit sale. Both projects were very successful.

The chapter also prepared an exhibit, using the theme "America's Progress Depends on Agriculture," for the Franklin County Fair. The exhibit won first place and was presented in January at the state farm show in Harrisburg. During FFA week, posters, radio spots, exhibits and billboards were built around the theme "A Future for America." Individual members also gave talks to local civic groups. The group attended many conventions, seminars and forums concerning topics ranging from leadership and public speaking to mechanics and fire fighting.

Blue Ridge chapter members of the Future Farmers of America, Steve Good, Rich Mumert, Jerry Cauffman and graduates Dave Koons and Bill Heffley, received the Keystone Degree, the highest award given by the state of Pennsylvania to FFA members.

Health Careers Club Is Formed

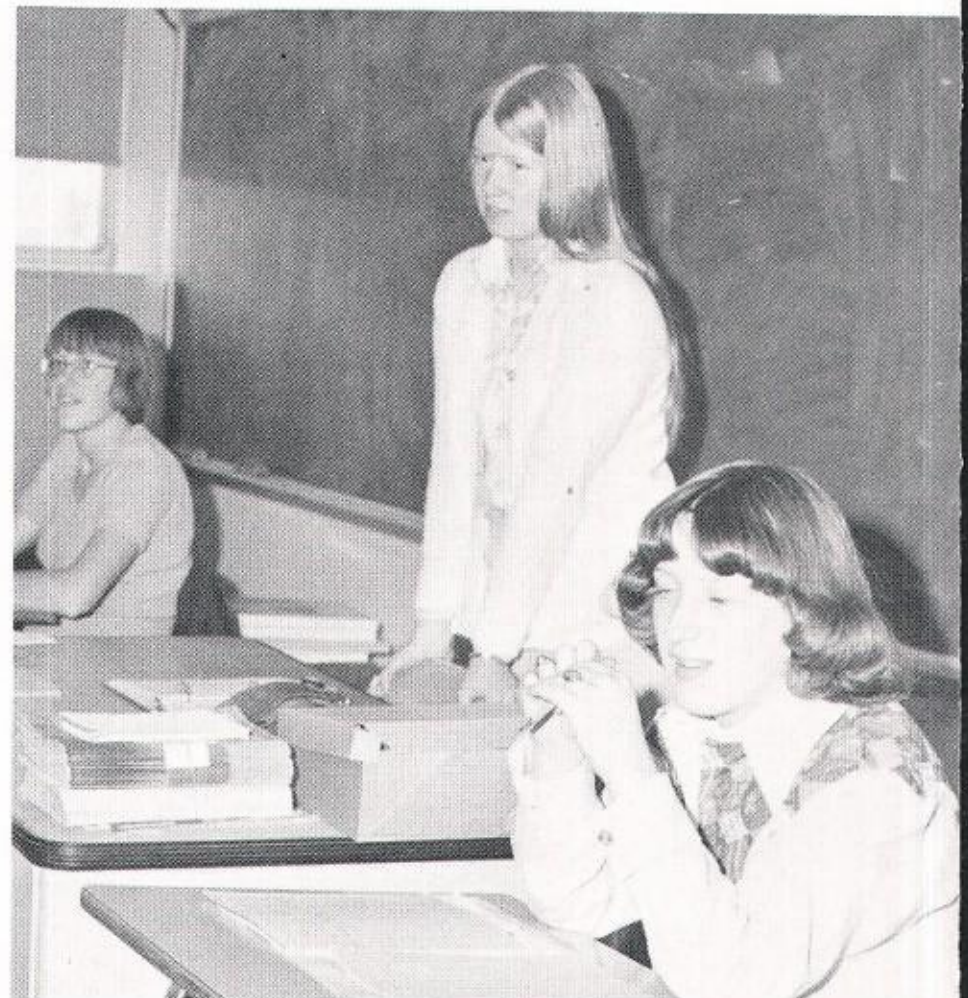

The Health Careers Club is a combination of two former WASHS groups, Future Nurses' Club and the Paramedics. Any student interested in acquiring more knowledge about careers in medicine or anyone interested in helping others is welcome to attend.

The club's goal is to prepare members for any type of health career. The students get a great deal of experience through practical application, rather than simply learning by lecture and film. This year, all the club's members are taking courses in aide work at the Waynesboro Hospital. Many also do volunteer work with patients at the Waynesboro Hospital, the Public Health-Well Baby Clinic, and the local bloodbanks. Dr. Wolfinger is offering a course in Emergency Medical Training which will enable all who complete it to qualify as ambulance attendants.

Mrs. Corinne Altland, our school nurse, advises these students in their medical training. The officers for this year include: Sue Stites (president), Kathy Seilhammer (vice-president), Roxanne Garner (secretary), Tammy Rachel (treasurer), and Mary Rosenberger (historian).

Students Form Friends International

Row 1: C. Schwartz (treasurer), K. Cantler (vice-president), B. Gardenhour (president), Cindy Crum (secretary), B. Valencia. Row 2: L. Gardener, Cathy Crum, J. Martin, A. Llop. Row 3: S. Coursey, M. Garcia, D. Chilcote, J. Compher.

Friends International is a new club at WASHS. According to Mrs. Alyce McCormick, advisor, "the club was formed to promote friendship and understanding among all people." Brit Astrid Vollset, last year's AFS student from Bergen, was instrumental in the formation of this club. Friends International helps foreign students at WASHS get acquainted with the community.

On October 21st, Bing Valencia, this year's AFS student from the Philippines, was given a banquet in her honor. The Phillipine Cultural Attache, Dr. Antonio V. Romualvez and his wife were also honored guests. Dr. Romualvez spoke to the group and showed a movie from his country.

Friends International counts members in both junior high schools in addition to those at WASHS.

YEA Strives To Improve Education

The Youth Education Association is the club for students interested in improving education at WASHS. Members visited a nearby college. They appreciated this opportunity to observe college life. Interest in cadet teaching was also rekindled. Cadet teaching gives high school students a chance to teach a lesson to students in junior high or elementary school.

The Youth Education Association State Convention was held in Gettysburg in March. WASHS sent two voting representatives. Several others went to listen to the discussions.

Students For Survival is an ecology-minded club. Its members are students who are concerned about our world and interested in cleaning it up.

Students For Survival carried out a photography contest in March. Contestants picked out the most polluted spot they could find and photographed it. Open to any age, the contest was divided into three categories: adult, secondary, and elementary. Winners in each division received five dollars. Prizes were also given for second and third places in each division. Other projects included an assembly about ecology and the installation of a feeding station for animals.

Most of the money taken goes toward the purchase of varsity jackets and plaques commemorating WASHS's undefeated teams. The Indian Club also holds a fund raising basketball game each year. Robert Noel is the president, Allen Washington is the vice-president, and Mark Scott is the secretary. Mr. William Smith and Mr. Robert Mesaros are the advisors.

All girls on WASHS athletic teams are eligible to be in Maiden Club. These girls usually have one fund raising project each year to pay for their spring banquet. The banquet is held in honor of all female athletes and their coaches.

The Morning Announcements Club is made up of cheery individuals who brightened the mornings during the 75-76 school year with many corny comments and a few pieces of advise. The club advisor, Mrs. Betty Bucy, could be seen at any time before eight a.m. dashing madly through the halls searching for a brave student to volunteer his services as an announcer.

The club is an enjoyable experience, invaluable to WASHS. One of these trusty characters is on hand every morning to remind everyone of their responsibilities and to announce leisure activities around the school. Reading the announcements is also a challenge to anyone who would like to try public speaking. Any student who is wide awake enough to see the print is welcome!

Student Council Strives To Protect Student Rights

The WASHS Student Council completed another action-packed year representing the students under the leadership of President Jonathan Unger. Advisors Willis Conover and Wayne Knepper gave much time and attention to the many issues that confronted this busy group.

The council sent three representatives to the state convention in the Pocono Mountains on October 16, 17, and 18. Anne McCleaf led the workshop on student rights and responsibilities. Student Council sponsored the homecoming festivities the same weekend and held a dance in honor of the queen.

The rights and responsibilities committee was especially busy, devoting much of their time to solving the smoking problem at WASHS and planning a symposium to discuss school issues. The student rights and responsibilities bill was also passed by the board of directors.

At Christmas the Council members operated a Christmas card delivery service for students and faculty to save the cost of mailing. They held their Christmas party and workshop at Mr. Knepper's cabin over vacation.

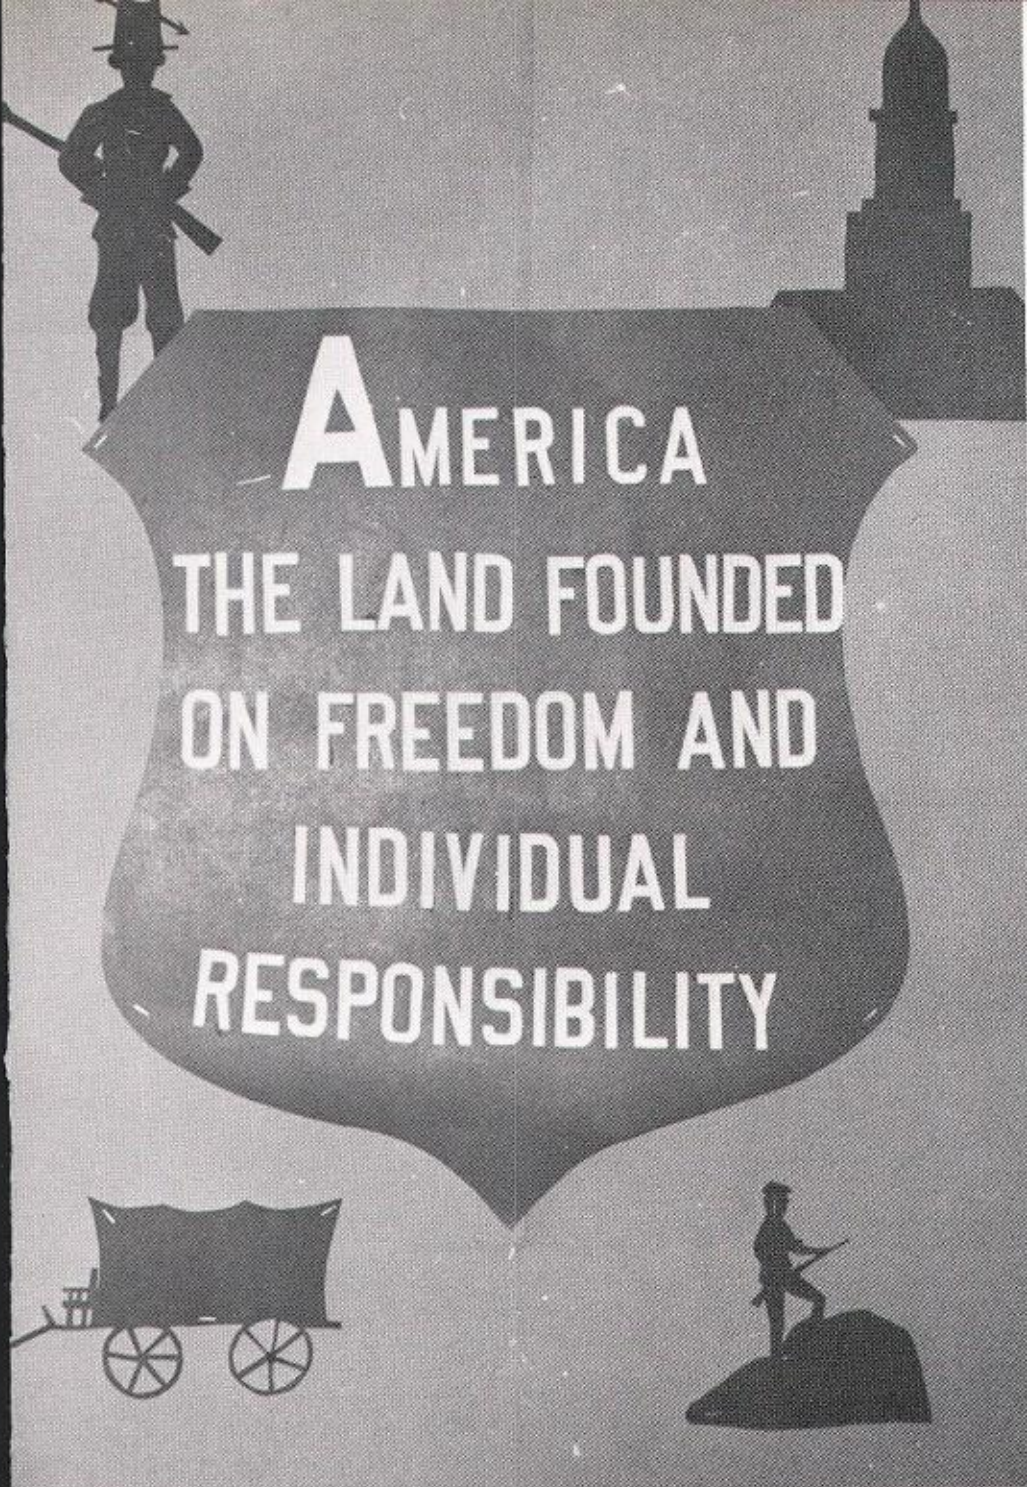

An Exchange Day was planned with several schools and the Council hosted the Lincoln Intermediate Unit Student Forum in February of '76. Susan Griffin was the only student member of the L.I.U. Advisory Board. Dana Buterbaugh and Tim Doyle represented Waynesboro in the L.I.U. Student Forum.

The Communications Committee placed interesting displays in the trophy case throughout the year, and Council voted on Citizens of the Month.

The Student Council ended a great year with their annual picnic held at Old Forge.

Blue And Gold

Reporting accurate, up-to-date information is the job of the BLUE AND GOLD, the official WASHS newspaper.

As the voice of the students, the paper includes articles concerning controversial school issues, club activities, and reports any news of interest around the school. Creative writing, art, student work and editorials are featured in each issue.

Mrs. Mary Ann Kulp advises the paper which is published six times during the school year. The BLUE AND GOLD is printed by the vo-tech printing shop and is distributed free of charge.

Tau Kappa Phi is a group of girls who get together to have fun and to help make our school, our community, and our world a better place to live in. In the fall, the girls held a successful bake sale and bazaar. TKP always decorates the Indian stadium with crepe paper and spirit posters for all the home football games.

Each year the girls decorate a Christmas basket and a Thanksgiving basket for a needy Waynesboro family.

TKP also sponsors a foster child overseas through the Christian Children Fund by sending a $12.00 contribution each month.

Students Gain Experience In Business

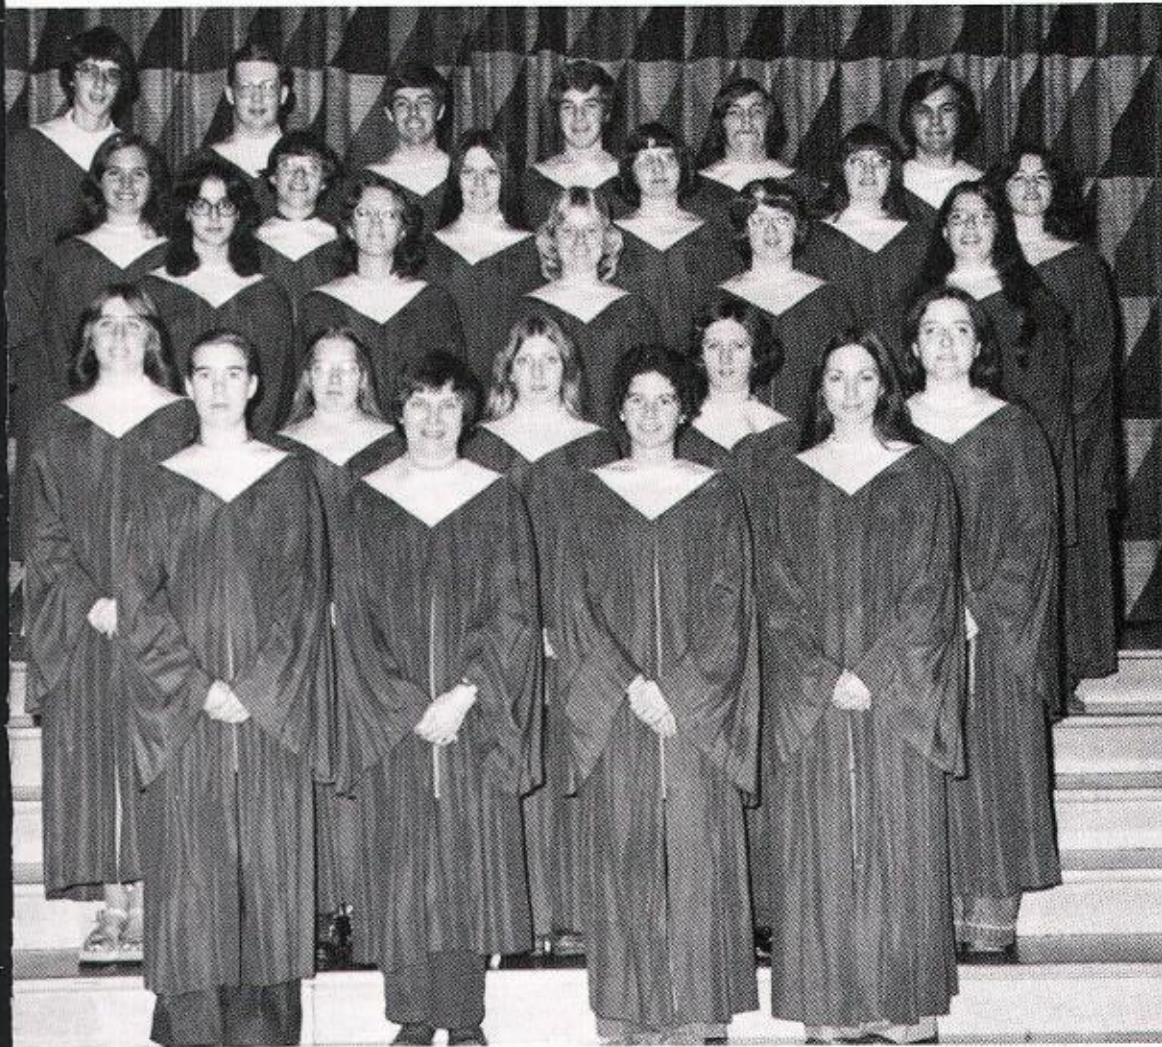

The Business Club helps its members get acquainted with business procedures. Any student taking two or more business subjects may join this organization. Members are initiated at the beginning of each year.

The club sold hoagies at school, and ran the school bookstore. Mrs. Dorothy Glover, advisor, helped the members plan interesting field trips to business schools and offices. Guest speakers gave students advice about what to do after high school. Everyone enjoyed the Christmas party in December and the annual spring picnic.

Students Sentenced To Honor Society

In May '75 the National Honor Society forced several WASHS students to stand trial. These students were found guilty of scholastic ability, good character, leadership, and service. The honorable Emma Hess, presiding judge at the time, sentenced all offenders to membership in the National Honor Society. Prisoners are paroled if they earn two "C's" on their report card.

By the time new members were inducted in a formal ceremony in March '76, only the hardened criminals were left. The jailbirds meet once a month to play games and try to keep from going stir crazy. Everybody enjoyed the annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Ruth Bushman, the warden.

One of our most active and least noted clubs, the Library Club is responsible for many of the services offered in the WASHS book corner. Members contribute several hours each week doing many varied activities, which include shelving and mending books, preparing informative displays, and circulating materials among students and faculty.

Each year the bookworms sponsor a Christmas service project and have a Christmas party. They also hold a faculty tea during National Library Week. At the end of the year, a spring banquet is held for these hard-working student librarians.

This year, Rhonda Calimer heads the student staff. Kim Downin is the vice-president and Allen Hartman is the secretary.

Every Friday after school eighteen WASHS students, who comprise the bowling league, meet at the Waynesboro Bowling Center to bowl against each other. Six teams with three bowlers each compete for the first place trophy.

Team #2, composed of John Gates, Suzy Gates, and Mary Blubaugh, won the midyear championship on January 23. At midyear John Gates chalked up the highest average of 170. Buddy McKean followed with a 155 average.

Chess Club Has Active Season

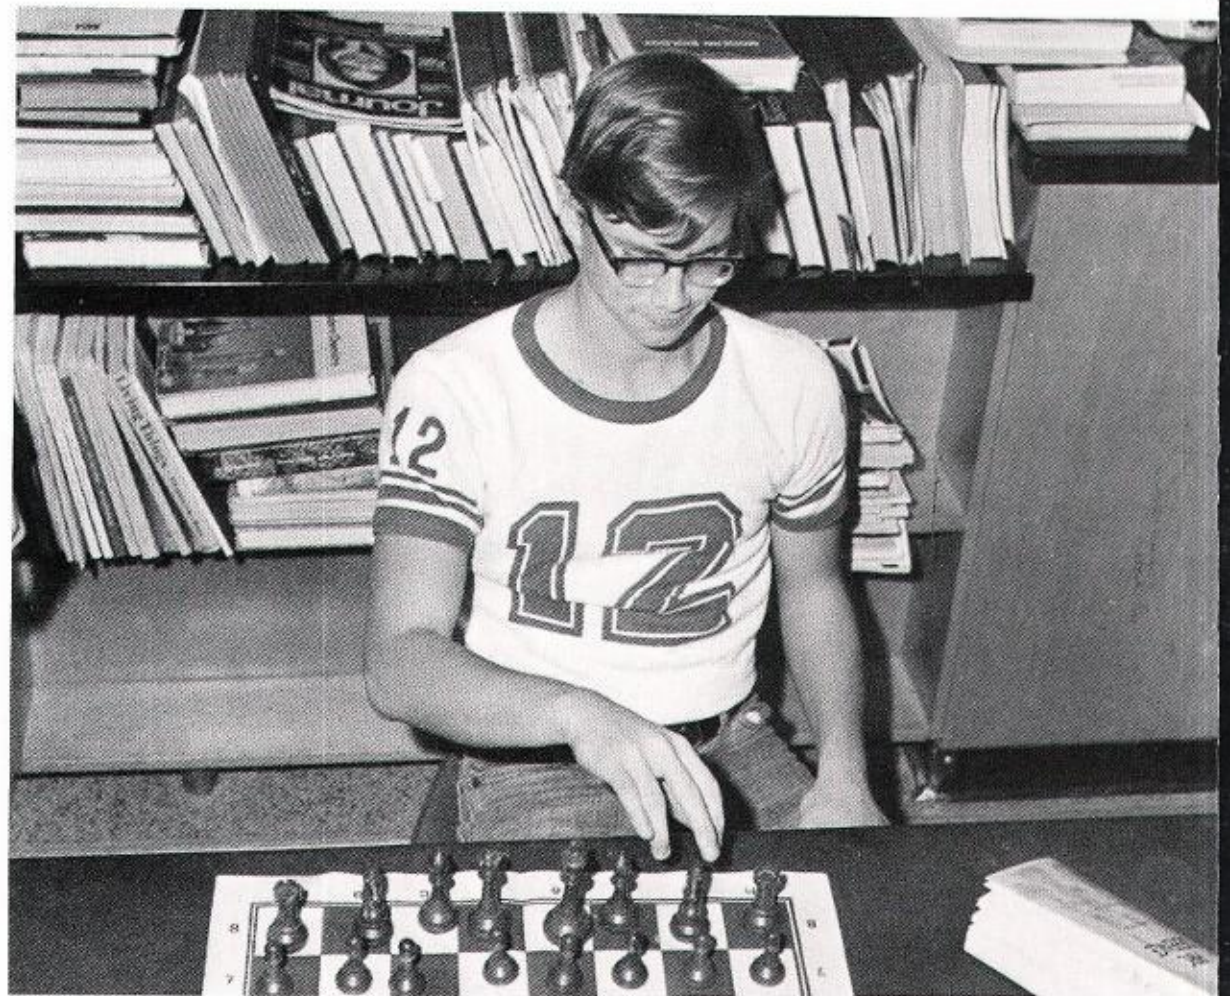

The Chess Club, advised by Mr. Ohler, meets every Tuesday after school to discuss and practice the strategies of chess.

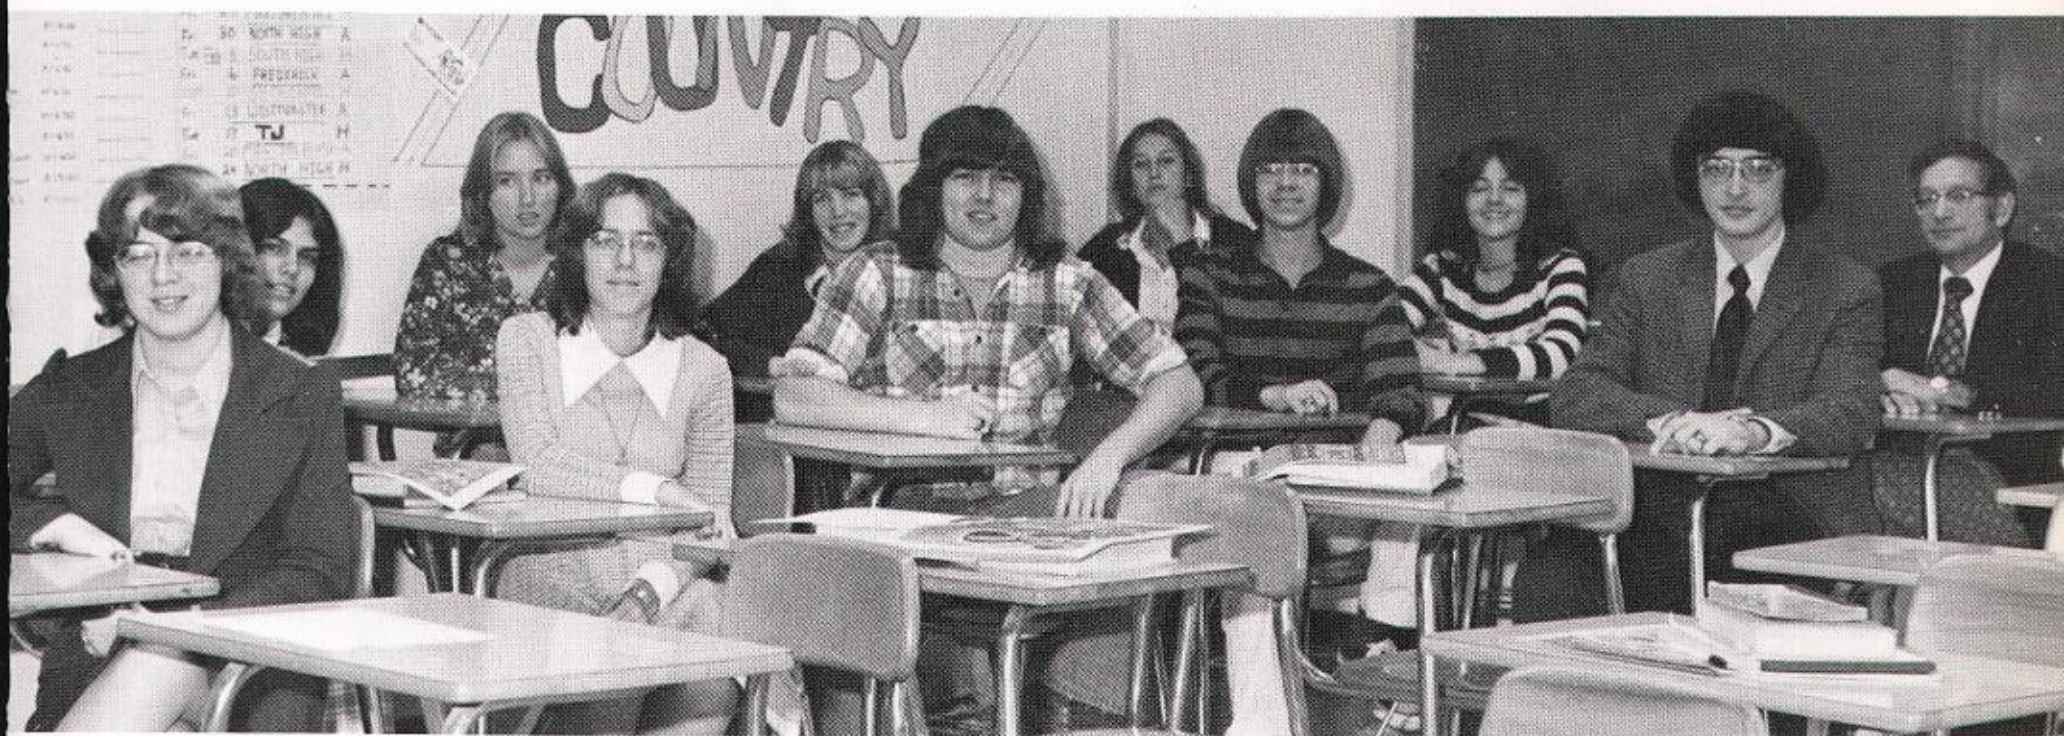

T. Carbaugh, B. Cleaver, A. McCleaf, B. Leib, D. Moshgat, F. Stitely.

The returning members of the club are Frank Stitely, Bruce Cleaver, Brian Leib, Charles Hintermeyer, and Denny Moshgat. Carole Schwartz is the only female member of the club.

Chess Club competes in a league with other high schools in Pennsylvania and entered the Mercersburg Tournament and the Pennsylvania State Scholastic Championship.

The Math Club is a group of students who meet every other Monday to explore the world of mathematics. Advisors Mr. Paul Gingrich and Mr. Jimmy Fries help them plan interesting games and puzzles.

Guest speakers and field trips enable members to examine the value of mathematics in the business world. In addition to these practical and fun experiences, Mr. Gingrich taught all interested students how to use the slide rule.

Tara Maloney reports on Pascal's triangle. By using this method of counting, she finds that if a woman has thirteen children, the probability is 8192 to 1 that they will all be boys.

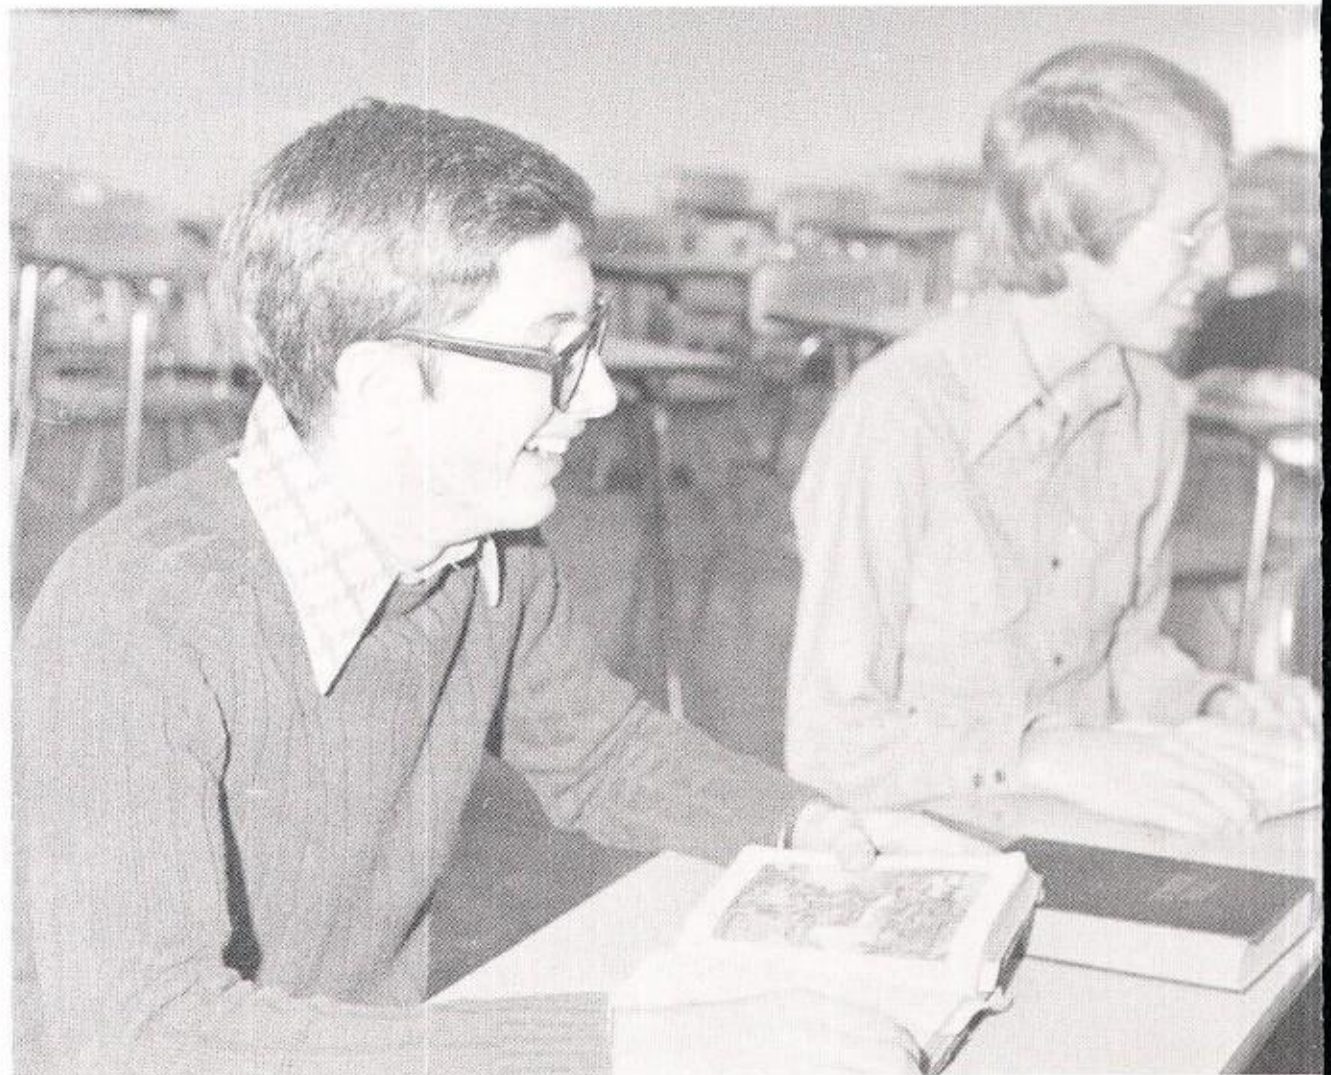

Oh, Come All Ye Faithful

This faithful group, advised by Mrs. Ruth Bushman, meets every Friday after school to study the Bible and join in prayer. They hope to strengthen their Christian growth by coming together in fellowship.

Music Club is an organization devoted to the performance of music. Any student interested in vocal or instrumental music is welcome to attend.

This year a tutoring program is being offered to any vocalist who can't stay on key. Other members help these students to improve their talents. Meetings are held the first and third Wednesdays of each month. The group's singing members and instrumentalists present a program at each meeting. These devoted musicians also usher and serve refreshments at the community concerts.

Sue Harbaugh presides as the president, Rey Klingon is the vice president and Emily Edelman is the secretary-treasurer.

Velvetones Present Nostalgic Music

The WASHS dance band specializes in "oldies, but goodies," playing the top tunes of the 40's and 50's to the best of their ability. They performed at many community functions during 1975 and 1976. They presented a variety of songs at school assemblies where they were enjoyed by all.

The band's largest engagement was "Sentimental Journey II," held at the school on March 13, 1976. Attended by many who recalled the music from their youth, it was another great success for the popular Velvetones.

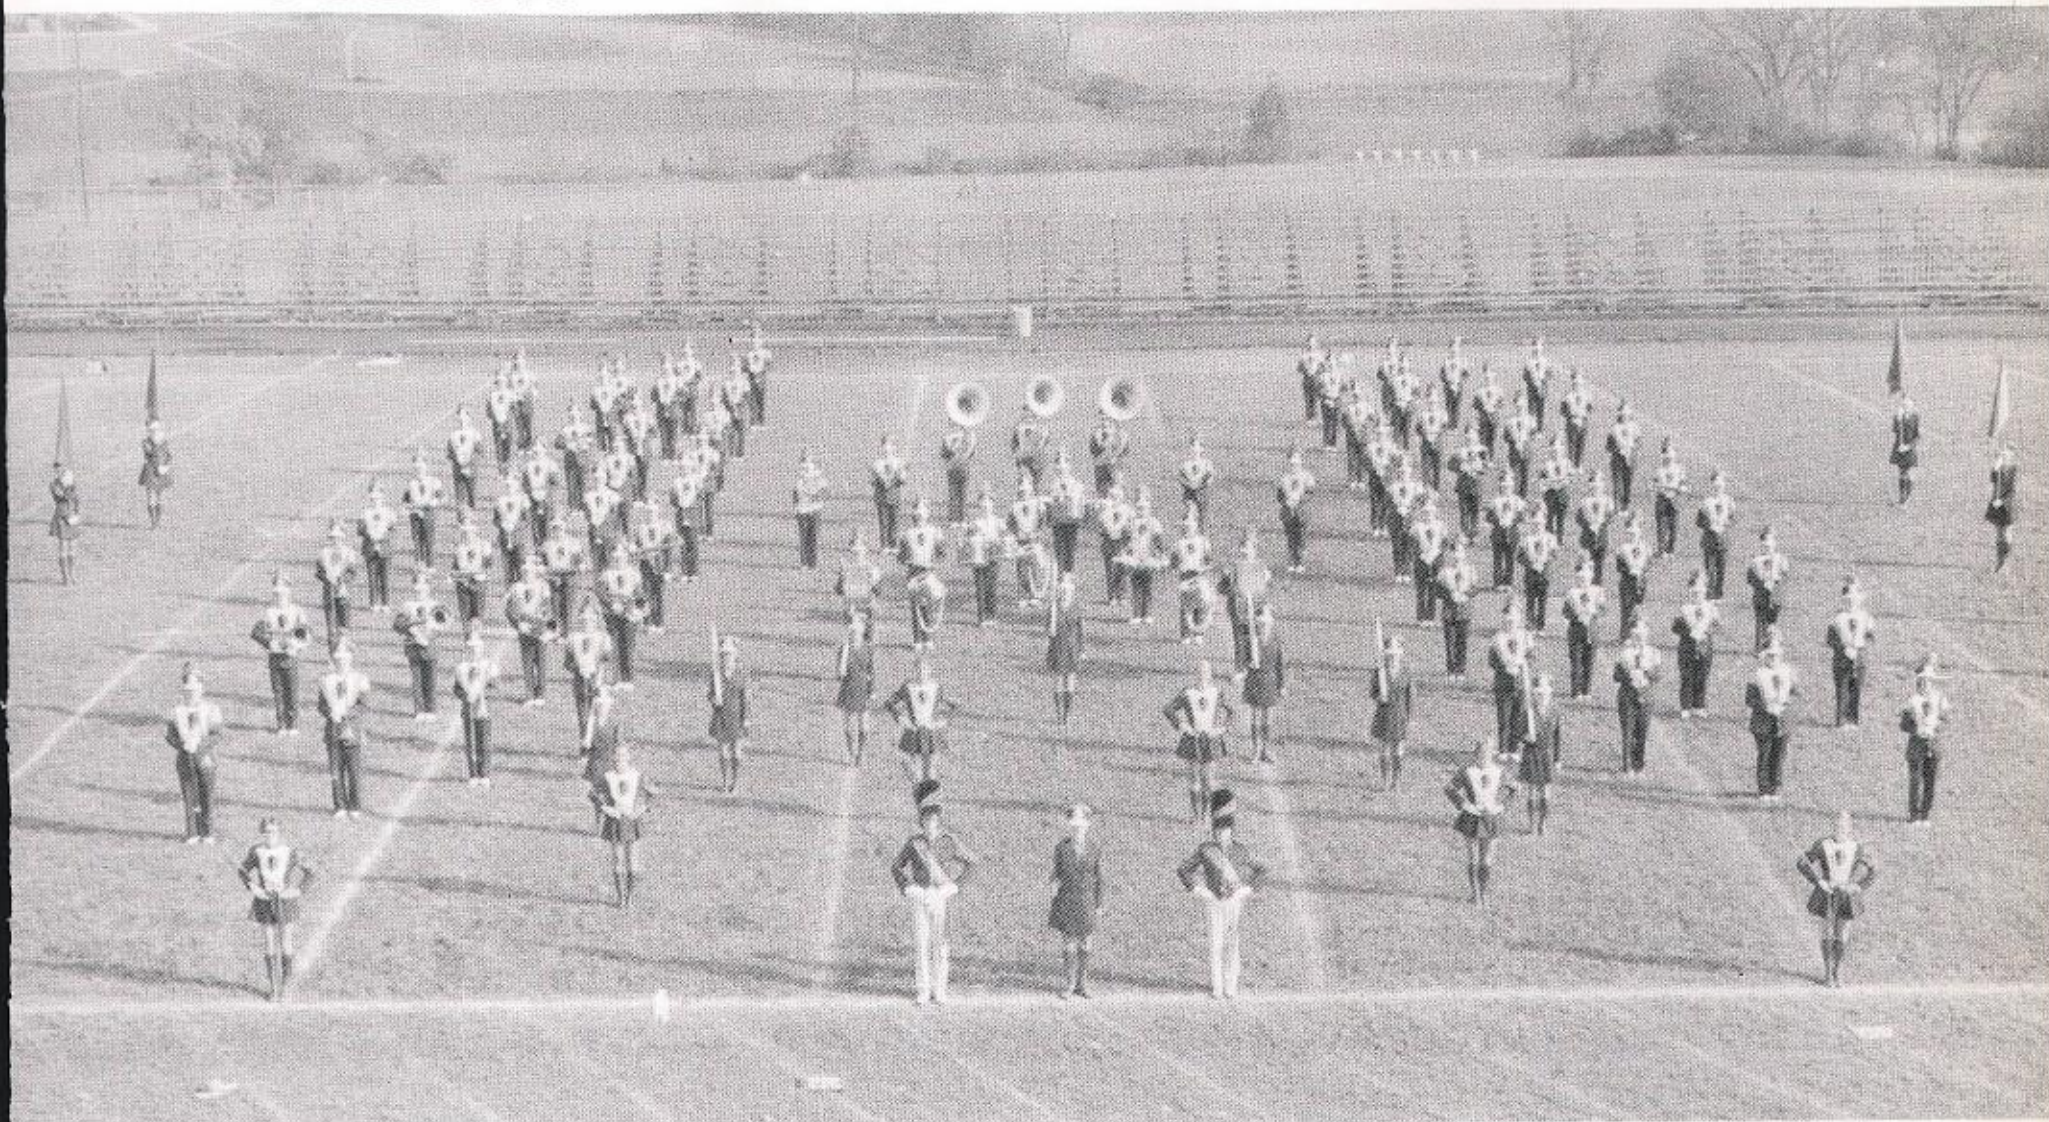

The band council is the voice of the Indian Band. Elected by their fellow students, these representatives are informed by Mr. Knier of any important events or decisions concerning the band. Several members also attend each band auxiliary meeting to present the band members' ideas.

Indian Band Performs In A Busy Season

The 1975-76 Indian Band marched through a busy fall season under the enthusiastic direction of Mr. Lee Knier, in his second year as WASHS Band Director.

During numerous summer practices and a grueling week of band camp, all the band members gave their attention to the exacting work of making a good performing unit out of 105 individuals. On September 2 the band participated in the Miss America Pageant Parade in Atlantic City, New Jersey. That started the marching season as they practiced five to six hours a week preparing a new half-time show for every home game.

Among Mr. Knier's many new ideas were dancing routines for the whole band, earning our Indian Marchers the nickname, "the Dancing Band of Waynesboro." Another innovation was an appearance by Margie Beard to the tune of "The Stripper." The football season ended on a happy note with a victory march to the square and dinner provided by the American Legion.

Other fall activities for the Indian Band included the Hagerstown Mummers' Parade and the taping of a new television show, "Almost Anything Goes."

During the winter the band conducted its annual fruitcake sale and turkey dinner under the supervision of the band auxiliary.

When spring came they traveled to Washington, D.C. to participate in the Cherry Blossom Festival Parade. The band also marched in the Waynesboro Memorial Day Parade.

The band members are proud of their efforts this year and feel they achieved a great deal while sharing the fellowship and fun that was the 1975-76 Indian Marching Band.

Spirited Colorguard And Majorettes

T. Wilhide, D. Itell, R. Devlin, K. Kline, L. Bonebrake, S. Hunsecker.

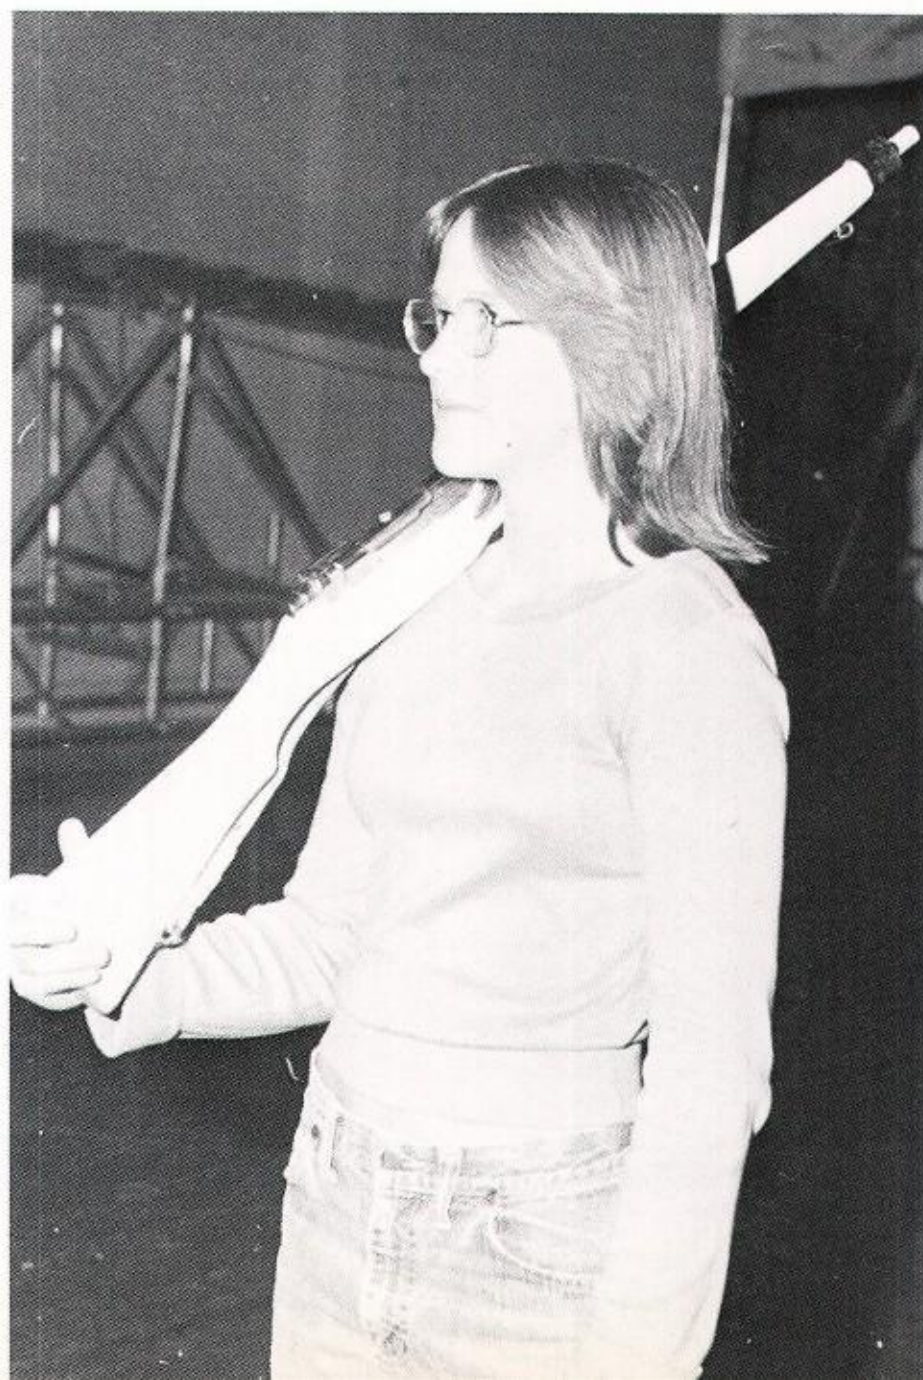

The band front is composed of the colorguard and the majorettes. These girls join the band in entertaining at parades and football games and in doing much spirited cheering for their team.

The 1975-76 colorguard, under the direction of Captain Anne McCleaf and her assistant, Tara Maloney, led the band through many performances. The girls practiced twice each week throughout the summer and during a week of band camp under the August sun. They worked on complicated, showy routines and perfected their technique.

When football season came, the unpredictable Mr. Knier had several new concepts for both squads. The usually stern and military rifle squad put down their equipment and did the Charleston. They also danced with their rifles in hand. The silks performed several very flashy routines while dancing, adding a touch of color to the Indian Band.

The majorettes were headed by Bebe Devlin during an equally long summer of practice. Under her guidance, the twirlers learned routines to all the marching music, which they performed with accomplishment in all the band's appearances. The majorettes handled their batons with flair and joined the rifle team in dancing during several halftime shows.

There were eight rifles, twelve silks, and six majorettes at the head of the band this year. The girls practiced all winter in preparation for the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C., where they appeared in the Cherry Blossom Parade.

Concert Band Plays

Concert bands are a unique concept in instrumental music. Once again this year, area music lovers were treated to WASHS's annual mid-winter and spring concerts. WASHS also hosted the county band on January 26, 1976. Under the direction of Mr. Lee Knier, band members were privately tutored to improve their technique and sound.

The orchestra is composed of strings and selected band instruments. These musicians practice several days a week preparing for concerts and the all school production, for which they present music each year.

Under the direction of Asher Edelman, the orchestra appeared in the Christmas assembly on December 22, the winter concert, and the spring concert.

The string ensemble, also instructed by Mr. Edelman, practiced daily, developing their playing technique for the complicated music. Although they are usually seen in the orchestra, the strings did appear as a separate unit in the spring concert.

The WASHS vocalists changed their name this year by combining two former groups, the Sophomore Choir and the Junior-Senior Choir. They now perform as a single unit under the able direction of Mr. Gerald Kowallis.

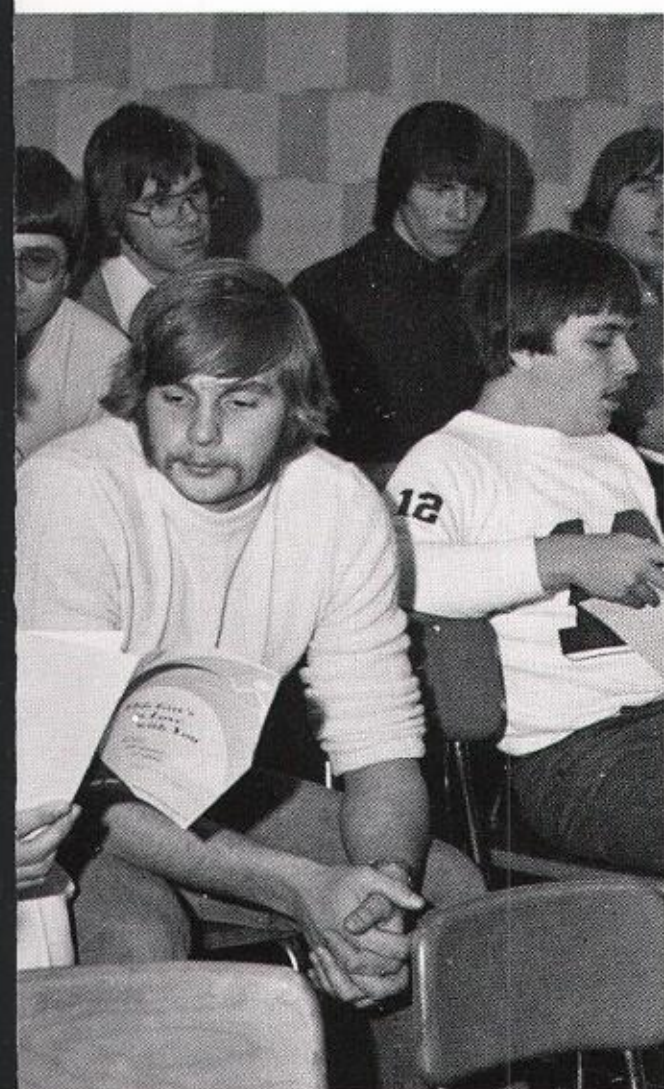

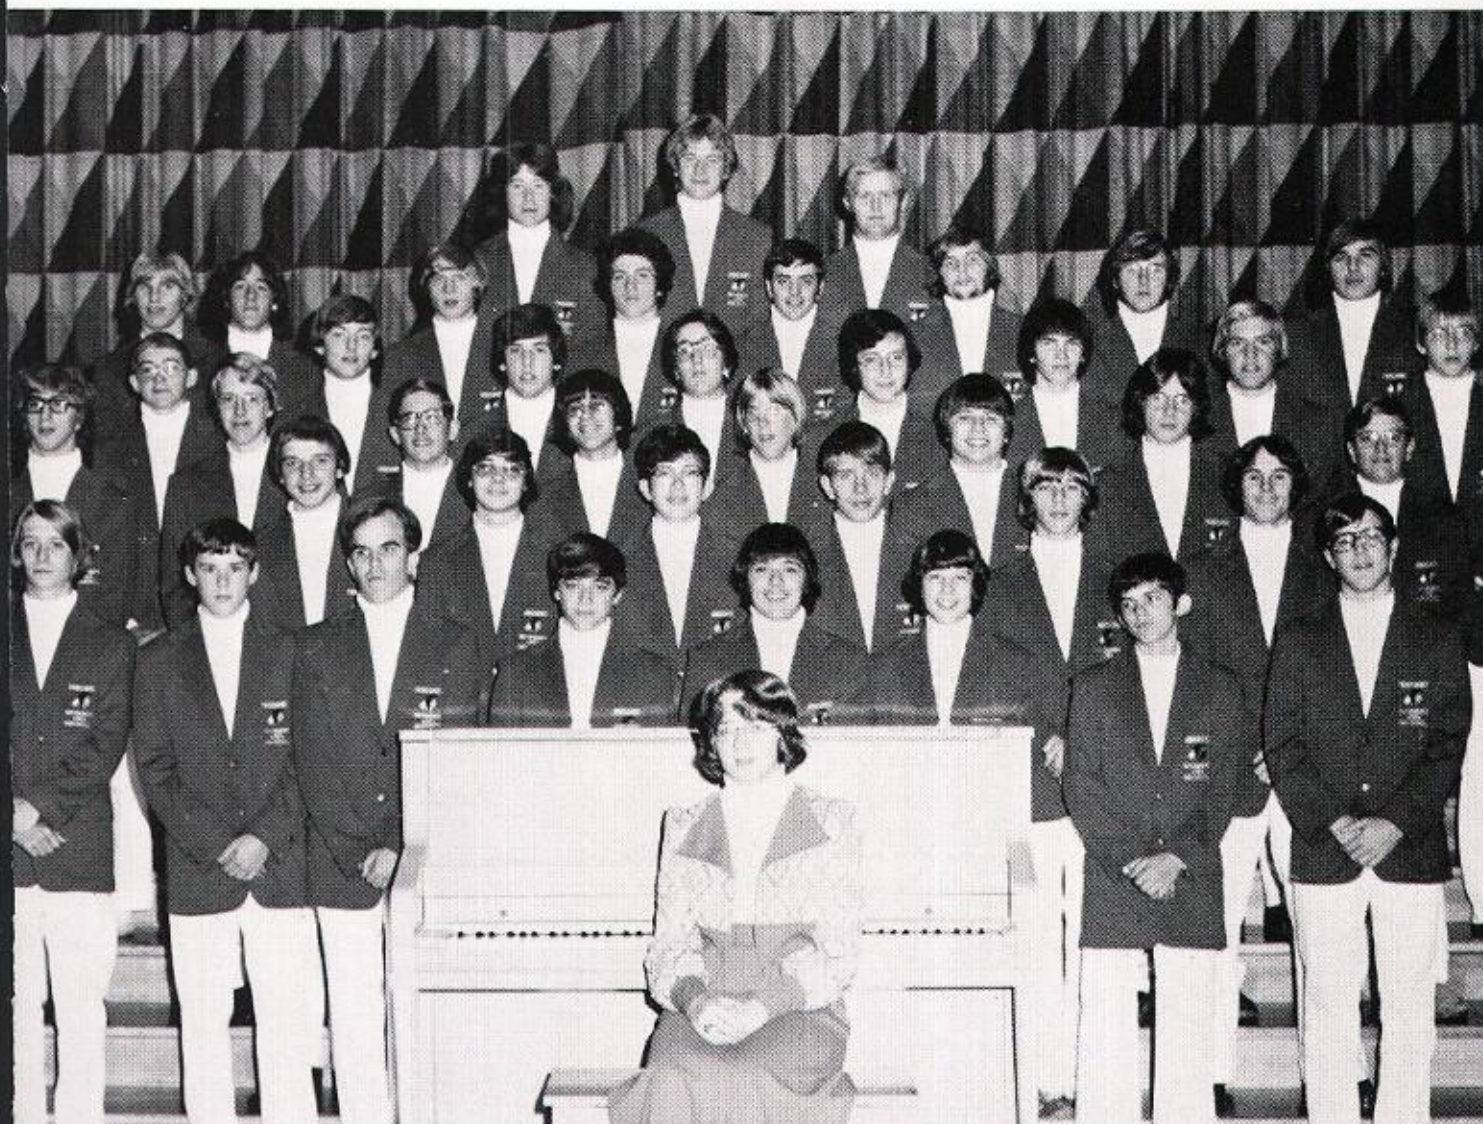

The WASHS Concert Choir is made up of many talented vocalists who must all audition before Mr. Kowallis to join this group.

In November, a specially selected Choral Ensemble consisting of about forty of the choir best vocalists performed Christmas selections at the Fort Ritchie Officers' Club. They presented many outstanding pieces in their Christmas concert.

New choir robes were another welcome change this year. The members wore the robes of royal blue with reversible stoles at Christmas.

The WASHS choir was one of eight schools invited to participate in the Lebanon Valley Choir Day on February 14, 1975. They also sang in the Annual Spring Choral Concert.

This hardworking group of outstanding male vocalists was again in demand for many performances throughout the 75-76 year. They appeared at the American Legion and the Masonic Lodge, among other places, to regale expectant audiences with their colorful repertoire of music.

The boys performed at East and Antietam Junior High Schools, and presented a program in the annual Christmas assembly. They also sang in both the mid-winter concert on December 22, and the spring choral concert.

This year the Tribe boasted a new attraction. A barbershop quartet consisting of Jerry Lange, Brian Black, Chuck Wilhide and Mike Rock performed during the group's many appearances.

The Girls' Glee Club pleased their listeners this year with lovely arrangements directed by Mr. Gerald Kowallis. This all-female chorus is for any girl who likes to sing. It helps many of its members gain a better understanding of musical techniques.

A few of the girls accompanied the choir to the Fort Ritchie Officers' Club where they presented Christmas selections. In the annual Christmas choral concert, the Glee Club performed several meaningful religious pieces, some of which they also presented at the WASHS Christmas assembly on December 22.

The girls sang light, springy tunes as well as serious music in the spring choral concert.

Throughout the 1975-76 school year the WASHS cheerleading squad helped boost the Indian athletic activities. Whether the teams won or lost, the cheerleaders displayed their spirited enthusiasm along the way. Sandy Beaumont advised the girls and contributed to their vitality.

In spite of many warnings from varsity coach Mesaros, Waynesboro fans were totally unprepared for the team's disappointing 9-0 loss to Redland in the first game. However, the Indians quickly developed a winning streak that refused to be broken. The team was given full support of the band and was cheered on every step of the way by thousands of enthusiastic spectators.

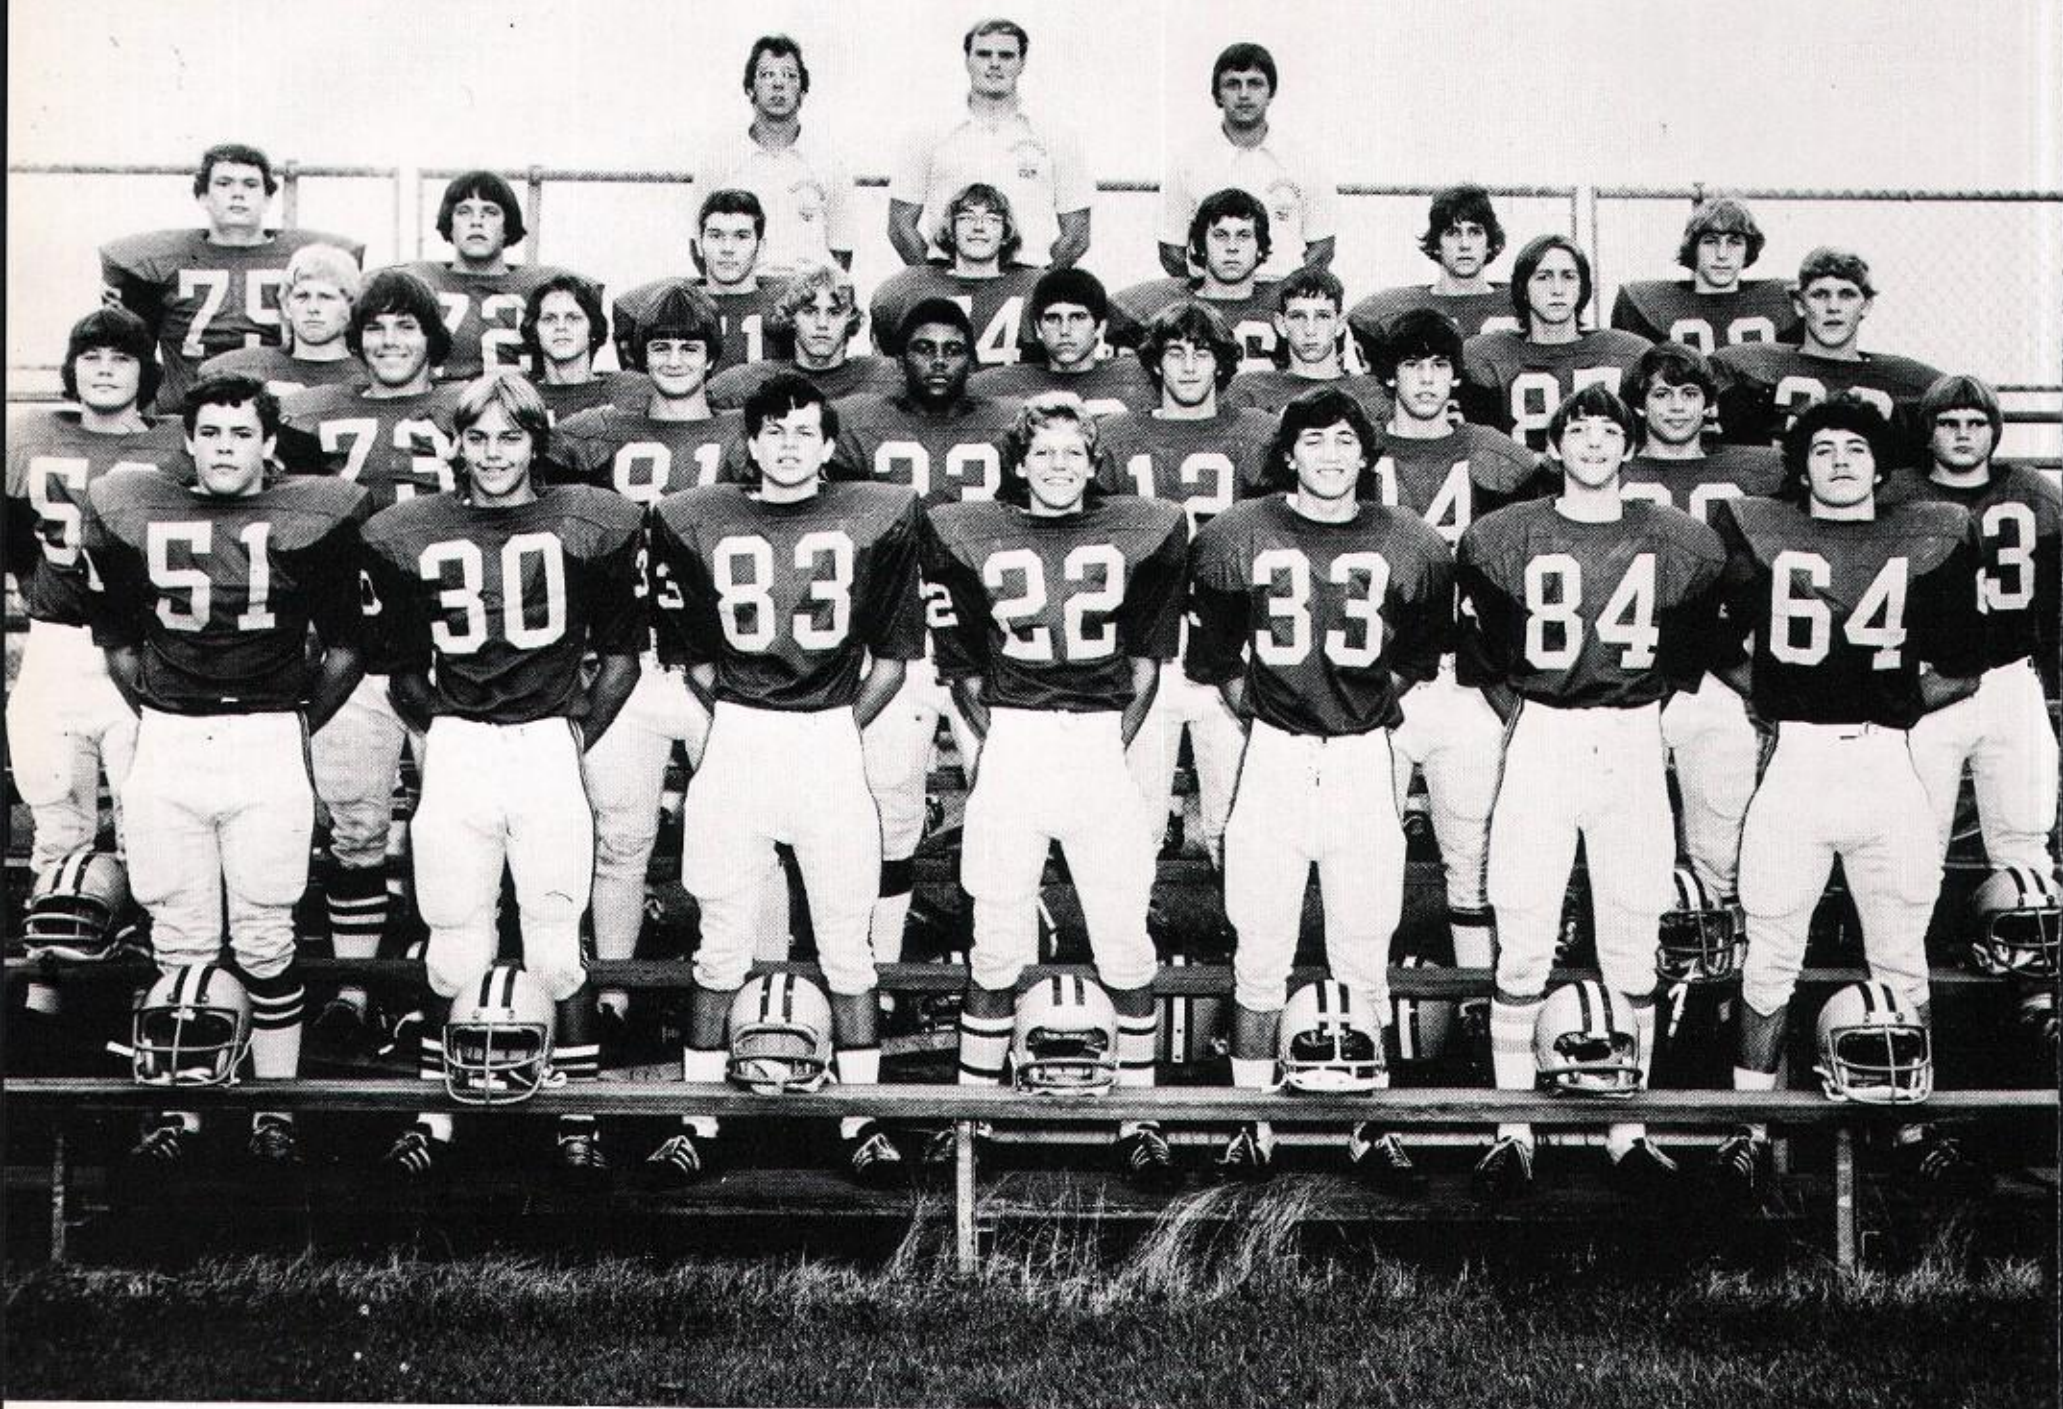

Yardage in excess of 1500 yards was totaled through the running of Ed Gonzales, through passes by Craig Walck, and through pass receiving by Jeff Arendt and John Blubaugh. Ed also led the team in kickoff returns.

While Mark Scott excelled in tackles, Gary Barnhart starred in quarterback sacking. Mark, along with Dan Eigenbrode, also led the way in fumble recoveries. Randy Shindle snapped up three interceptions.

Following an Indian victory over Martinsburg, the team led by the band paraded down Main Street, where they were lauded by Mayor Thomas Painter and Coach Mesaros. The team, band, and cheerleaders were the honored guests at the American Legion victory dinner. The team ended another season as Tri-State champions.

James N. Hasson coached his first Waynesboro team this season. The former marine was a tough coach and did a good job preparing the boys for the varsity squad next year.

The jayvee gridders beat both North and South Hagerstown teams, as well as South Carroll. The Li'l Injuns claimed that coach Hasson was well organized and lots of fun, although he always expected a serious attitude from the players on the field. The team compiled a 3-4-1 record this year.

Indian Harriers Have Winning Season

This year the Waynesboro harriers ran a grand total of 5,743 miles! After dropping the first meet of the season to Chambersburg, the Indians won all the following meets with the exception of those with Carlisle and North High. The cross country team had an excellent 5-3 record.

Dave Leiter and Tim Brown led the runners to a rewarding third place in the South Carol Invitational and the Tri-State League Championship. The varsity squad garnered a hard earned eighth place at the District III Meet. Tami Allias was awarded the eleventh place medal in the girls division.

The jayvee runners streaked through a great season, posting a 4-2 count for their efforts. Many boys worked diligently improving their times, and they should be the core of a successful team next year.

M-A-I-D-E-N-S, Maidens Are The Very Best!

Once again the mighty Maidens used tricky stickwork to dribble their way to victory. Coach Mary Rotz, back from a year's leave, pushed the girls to greater achievement in producing a solid 9-2-3 record against some of the toughest, most experienced teams in the league. With only three varsity players remaining from '74 she had to do extensive rebuilding including a search for "the perfect goalie."

Greencastle and Chambersburg proved to be invincible and the hockey jocks came away with one tie and one loss from each of them. They tied 1-1 with an improved Scotland squad.

The ten Maiden underclassmen of '75 are already thinking about next year's hockey. The team will lose only four players through graduation and is eagerly awaiting another chance to regain the South Penn championship of past years.

Row 1: T. Cover (manager), D. Heefner, D. Swartz, D. Baugher, R. West, S. Foreman, K. Seckron. Row 2: K. Hawkins, D. Oller, D. Debrick, K. Cluck, J. Stern, R. Burns. Row 3: C. Mowery (coach), K. Stottlemeyer, S. Ritchey, M. Sanders, D. Newlin, J. Pieterse, T. Gembe.

Coach Mowery's jayvees seemed to have run out of luck in '75 as they ran up losses in an unending quest for victory. After losing several close games to experienced teams including Chambersburg and Greencastle, the Lil'l Maidens wound up their season with a 0-13-1 record. Their single tie was a 1-1 score with Shippensburg.

No players returned from the '74 jayvee squad and thirteen of the eighteen members were freshmen. Miss Mowery worked hard to teach the girls the rudiments of hockey in the all too short practice sessions! The players performed to the best of their ability and improved their skills. They should certainly come back with a winning combination in '76.

Booters Face Tough Season

The jayvee soccermen had a particularly rough season in which they scored ten goals and gave up twenty-one goals. Coach Mowen feels that the boys on the team have much talent and he is looking forward to more training for these potential booters in '76.

Row 1: J. Kline, M. Trostle, D. Adams, S. Honodel, J. Mulcahy, J. Barnhart. Row 2: A. Peters, J. Hebda, D. Wise, B. Cox, G. Bloom, K. Mowen. (coach). Row 3: C. Smith, D. Catalino, S. Hess, J. Criste, F. Stum, T. Willison. D. Beckner and B. Kauffman are absent from the photograph.

Bad Luck Follows Javees

The 1975 Indian booters struggled through a long and discouraging season as they were downed by challenger after challenger. Plagued by injuries and a lack of experience, the team conquered Greencastle, Cumberland Valley and James Buchanan to post a final 3-13 record.

Jeff Adams, Jim Ausherman and Bob Deegan were the only members of last year's varsity squad who returned to lead the soccermen. Although many of the boys attended camp to improve their skills and although a few faithfully built up their endurance attending Bob Stum's summer clinic, bad luck followed them through Pennsylvania. Fullback Bill Yoder broke his foot early in the season, while both Jim Ausherman and Jeff Adams sustained broken fingers.

Mr. Stum has many talented sophomores who will be the backbone of next year's team.

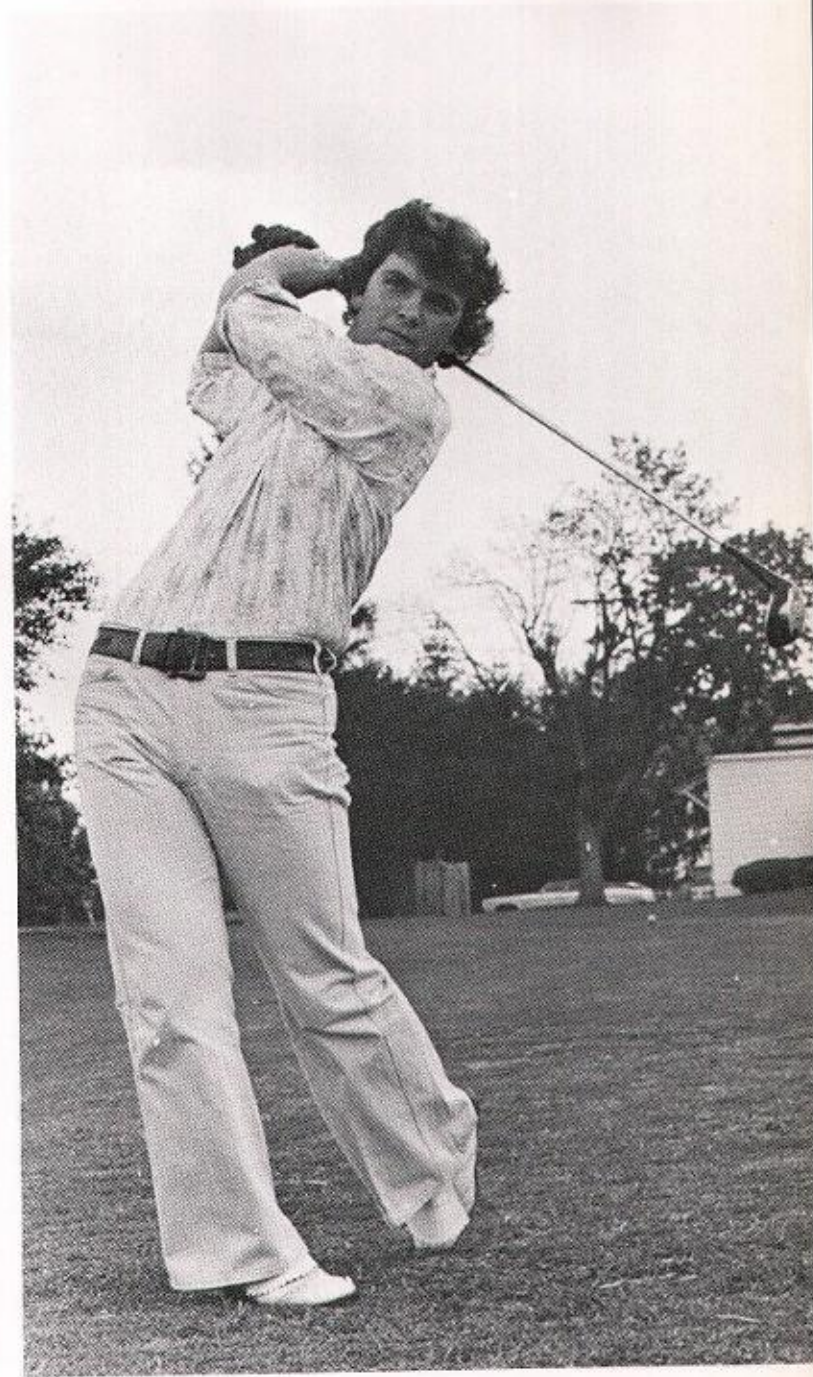

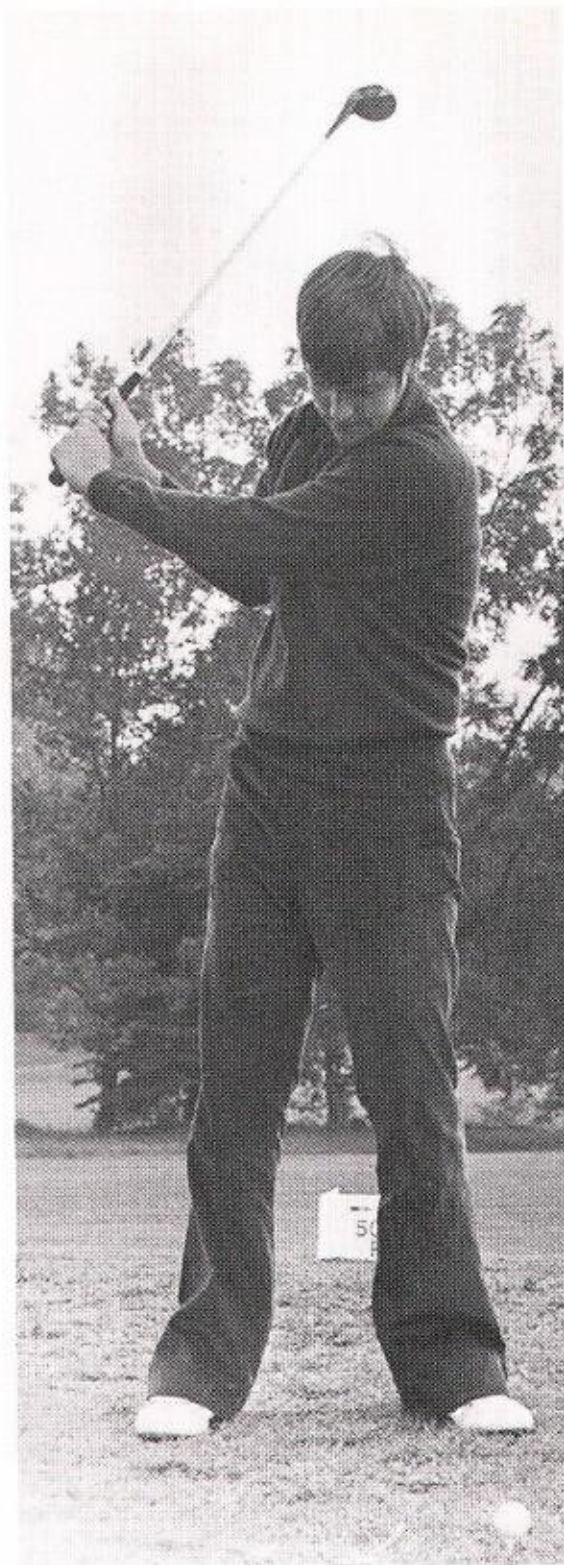

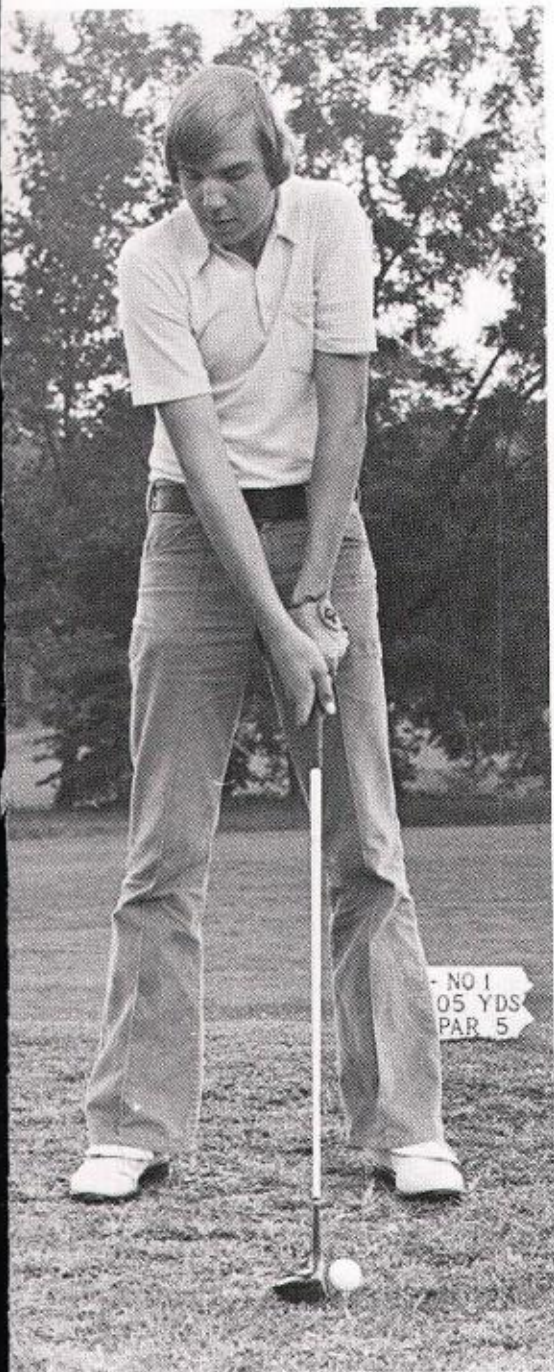

Golfers Win Tri-State Title

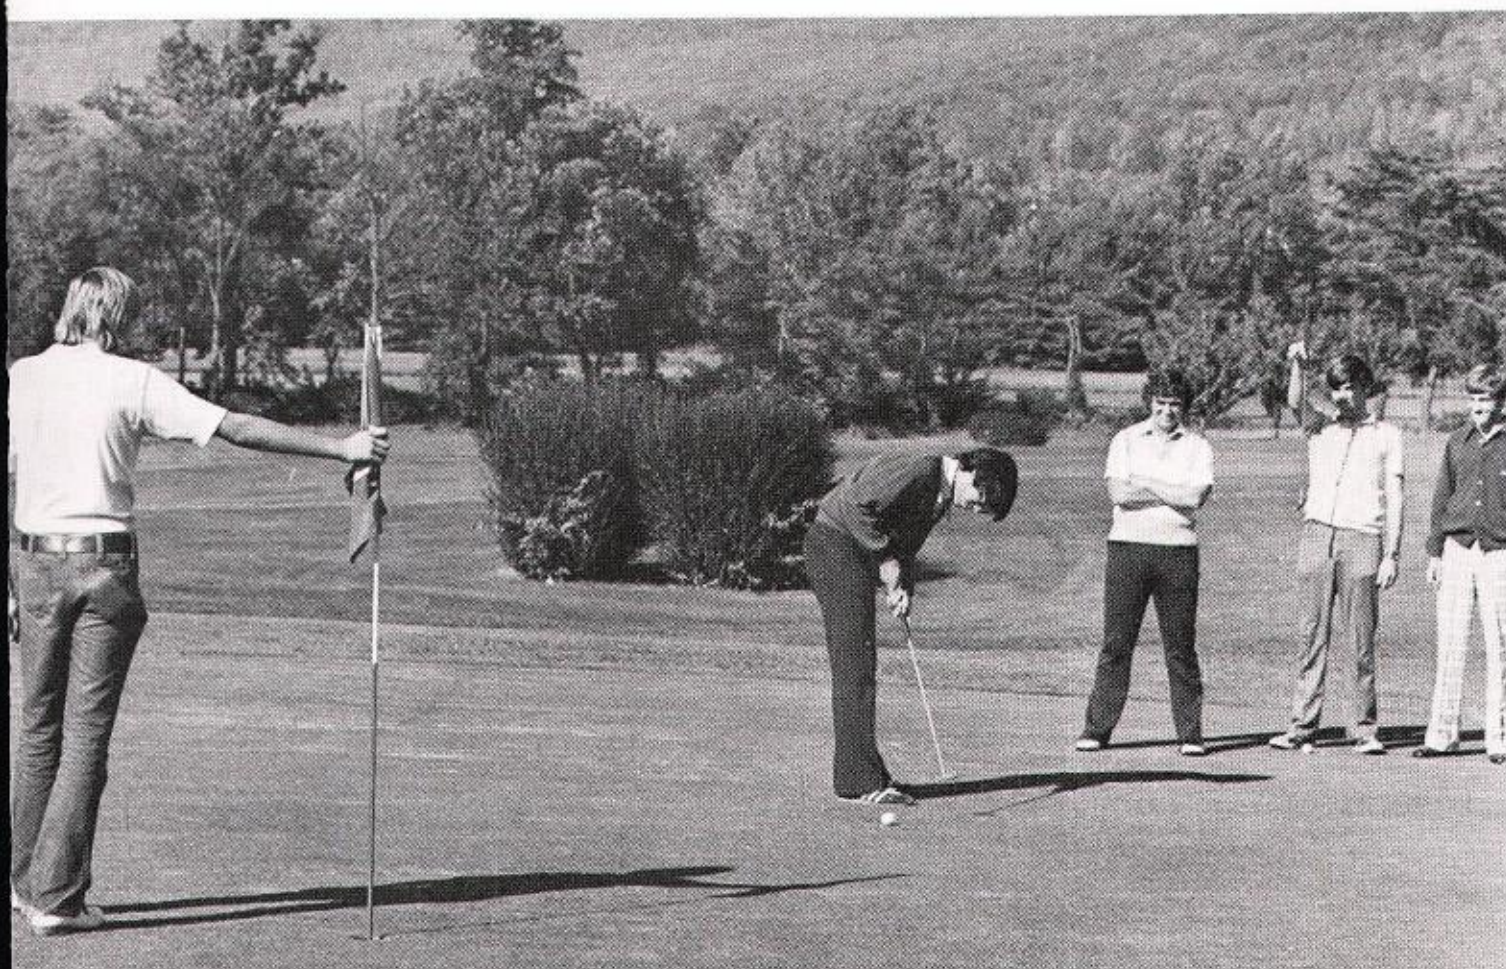

Row 1: M. Hutton, C. Terry, J. Gates, A. Llop, J. Cunningham. Row 2: A. Miller, G. Duffey, C. Meckley, R. Swope, T. Swartz, C. Joiner.

The WASHS linksmen of '75 finally captured sole possession of that elusive Tri-State crown by outshooting every opponent for an undefeated season. In '73 the Indian golfers garnered second place and last year they fought to a disappointing tie for first place with an accurate Frederick team.

Coach Brian Sachs had every reason to be proud of his carefully groomed proteges who qualified for the District III Match. Greg Duffy, Randy Swope, Chuck Joiner, Tom Swartz, and Alan Miller went to the event. Chuck took fifth place which qualified him for the state meet. He finished in eleventh place of one-hundred and twenty Pennsylvania golfers.

Indians Show An Improved Record

The determined efforts of the Waynesboro basketball team yielded a season packed with action and excitement. The start of the 1975-76 season was rather rocky as the Indians lost seven of their first eight non-league games. Undaunted, the hoopsters plunged into Tri-State competition by taking the game with South High by 2 points. The Indians defeated Frederick in a most memorable game in which they overcame an 18 point deficit in the fourth quarter. The Waynesboro varsity became the undisputed victor in the Westminster contest. The Indians and their opponents were rather evenly matched as several one point losses appeared in the scorebooks. The extent of the enthusiasm and competitive spirit with which the team played was evident throughout the season. Senior starters were Mark Hollen and Frank Stitely. John Blubaugh, Jim McDaniel, and Craig Walck were the junior starters. Sophomore Alan Yentsch was transferred from the junior varsity during midseason. Scoring has been fairly balanced throughout the season. Leading scorers have been Walck, Hollen, McDaniel, and Blubaugh.

For Coach Brian Sachs the season has been rewarding in many ways. Compared to previous records of 5 wins in 5 years, this season has been very successful. The L'il Injuns, coached by Louis Kohler, also posted a good record and prepared some good players for varsity competition next year.

Wrestlers Are Tri-State Champions

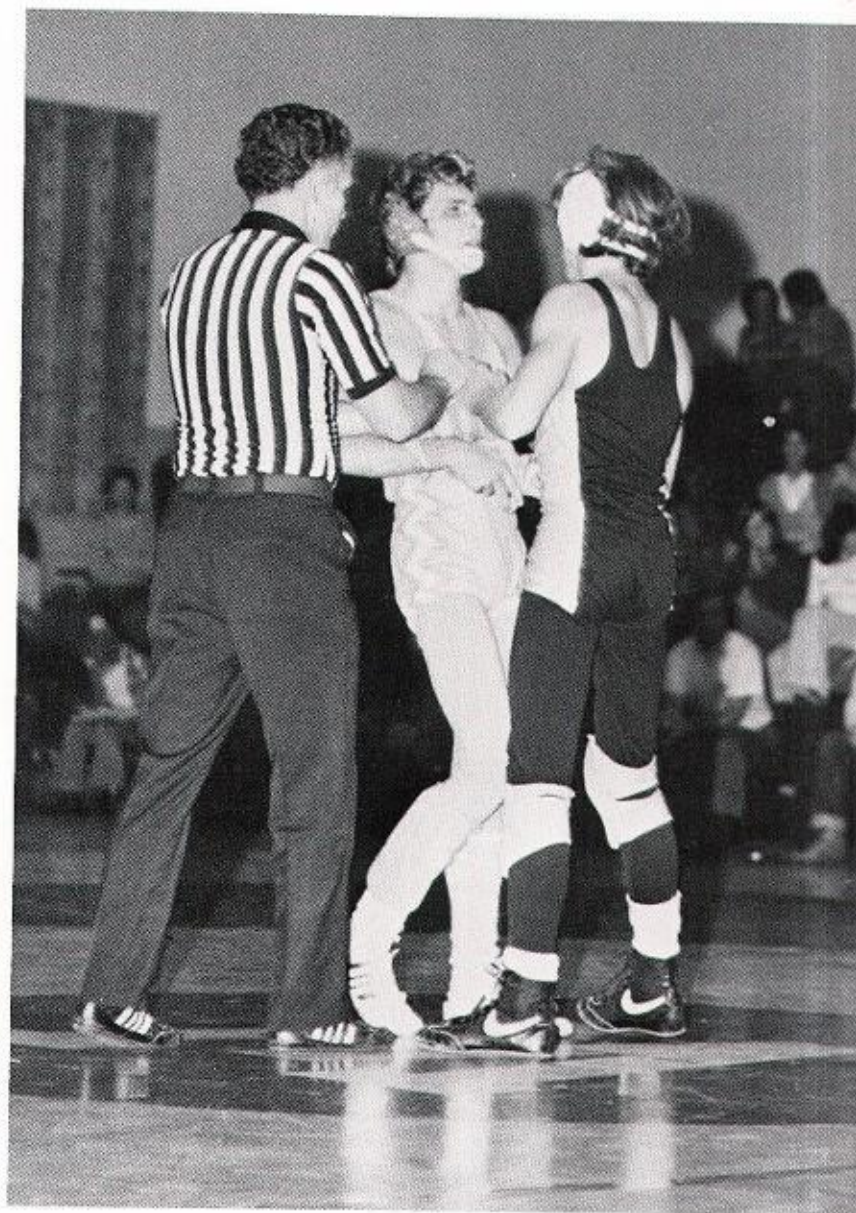

Row 1: K. McCoy (statistician), R. Swink, J. Kline, B. Deegan, V. Flasher, T. Hight, C. Stine, E. Reed, R. Eigenbrode, J. Barlup, M. Benedict, T. Hough. Row 2: S. Reed, B. Swink, D. Kline, D. Duffey, J. Carson, T. Shank, B. McCarthy, J. Wetherald, D. McQuait, K. Baker, K. Sullivan, G. Duffey. Row 3: M. Bock, M. Hutton, B. Dick, S. Honodel, R. Swink, V. Bowman, G. Brown, S. Curlen, A. Washington, E. Gonzales, J. Taylor, D. Hess, R. Carbaugh, B. Taylor, T. Kirk.

The Waynesboro wrestlers of 1975-76 successfully defended the Tri-State championship by taking the league championship for the third consecutive year. The varsity squad ended the season with an impressive record of 10-3-1. Steve Curlen tied the school for pins in a single season by pinning ten opponents. He also compiled a total of 78 points this season, thus breaking Dave Miller's previous record of 77 points. Ed Gonzales, with 24 takedowns, smashed the standing record of 22 takedowns shared by Bill Hodge and Ken Rook.

After winning ten dual meets in league competition, the grapplers traveled to the Tri-State Wrestling Tournament. There they proceeded to capture five individual championships. Greg Brown, Steve Curlen, Ed Gonzales, Bob Taylor, and Allen Washington emerged unscathed from confrontations with their top opponents, taking the first place titles in their respective weight divisions. Steve Honodel and Rick Swink were second place winners.

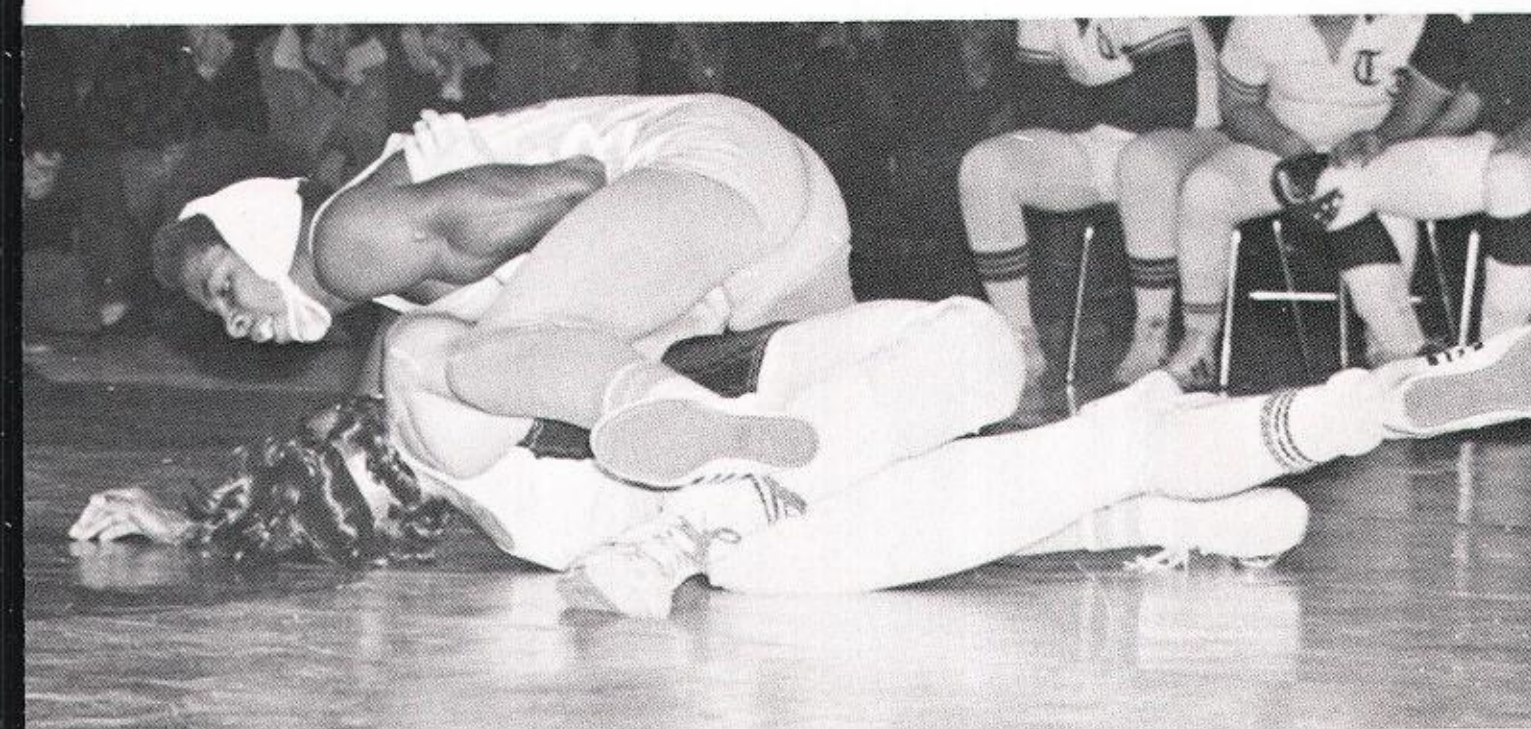

Coach Liddick will be missed by wrestlers and fans alike next year. He has coached three successful Indian teams to fine finishes, producing an outstanding combined record of 35-4-1. Waynesboro wrestling has benefited from Liddick's coaching, and we wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors. The junior varsity wrestling squad, coached for the first time by Matthew Tydor, fought off tough competition to achieve a winning season.

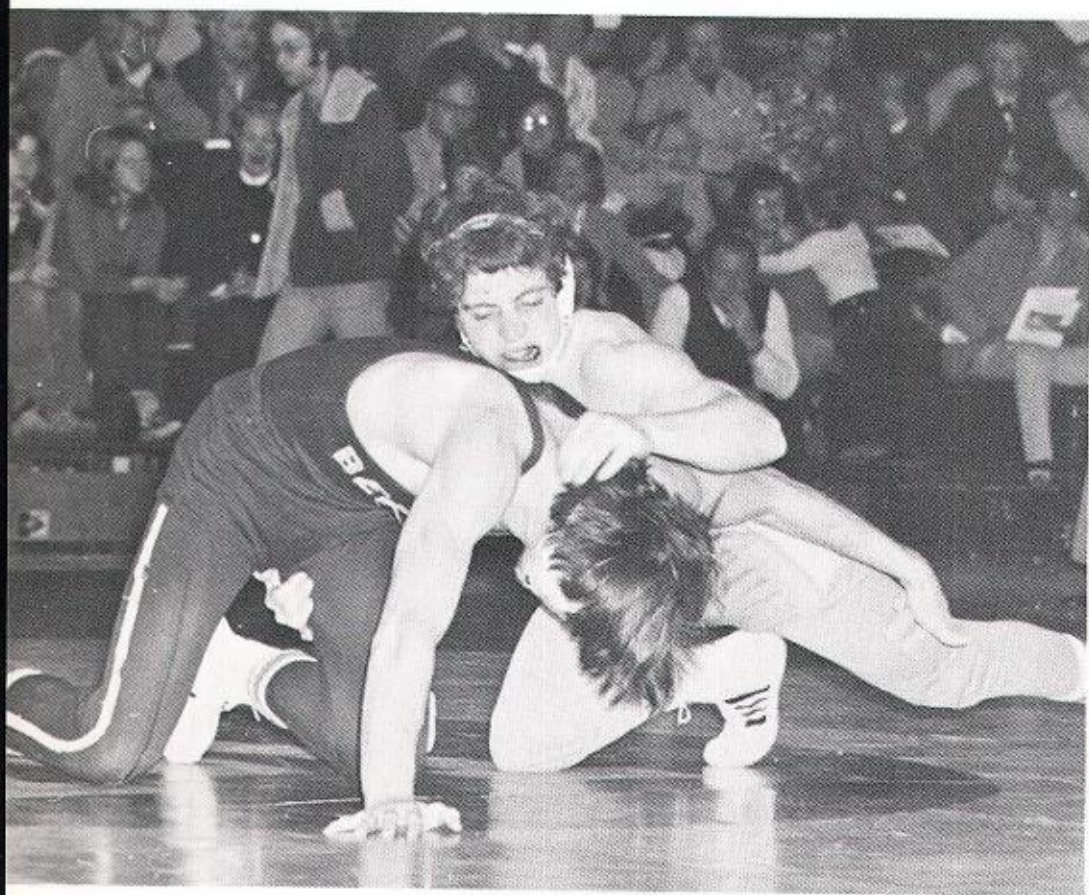

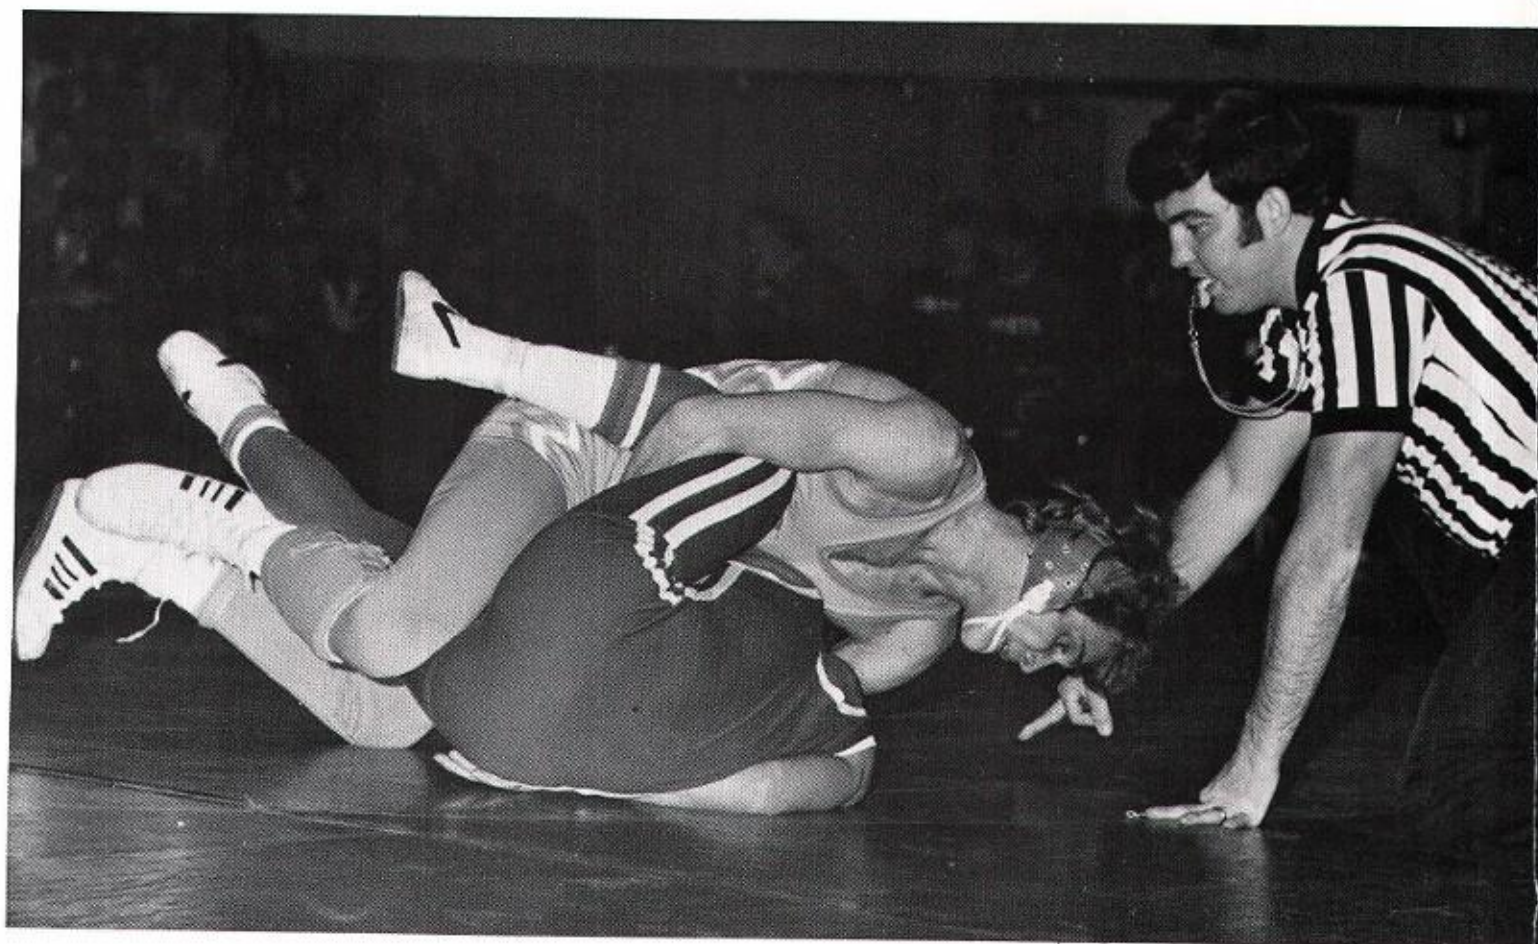

One highlight of Waynesboro wrestling was the third annual wrestling booster queen contest. The contest was introduced by Coach Liddick in 1973 to raise funds for the wrestling program, and since its inception more than $12,000 has been contributed to the hard working candidates. The contest features fifteen girls, five from each class, who sell votes at the rate of ten cents each. The young lady from each class who sells the most votes wins the crown.

This year, reigning queen Bobbi Hoffman crowned the 1975-76 queen, Debra Hughes, who collected a record high of $1,100 for the program. Karen Stine was crowned junior princess and Becky Huff received the sophomore crown.

Tracksters Have Victorious Season

The Waynesboro tracksters produced a 7-3 record this year and placed fourth in the Tri-State Meet. Much of the Indians' strength was attributed to long distance runners Mark Michaels and John Doub, who were graduated in the class of '75. Both boys were sure point-producers in the mile and two mile runs. Michaels was part of a blazing two mile relay team that set a new record at the Tri-State Meet. The Tribe's field events were fairly strong, but the team lacked experience in the hurdles and sprints. John Doub took an easy first place and Mark Michaels finished second in the district meet, qualifying them for the State competition. Doub placed sixteenth and Michaels placed seventeenth.

Coaches Stum and Mummert look forward to a promising spring season with the return of many experienced underclassmen.

Coaches: B. Mummert, R. Stum, K. Mowen.

The individual members of the girls basketball team successfully combined their diverse abilities to produce a 7-7 season in the South Pennsylvania league and an overall 10-8 season. Jane Bollinger was the varsity team captain, while Bonnie Zehler was co-captain. Tara Sanders scored the highest number of points for the Maidens team, and Bonnie Zehler was an outstanding rebounder. Margie Beard, excelling at fast breaks and outside shots, was another high scorer. Wendy Emery had a fine season as a good defensive player and also as a scorer. Tami Alias, another good defensive player, was quick to intercept the ball. Jane Bollinger saw action as a rebounder for the team. Another rebounder was Liz Hamilton who improved greatly. New to the Maidens team this year was Pam Lambert. Maureen Devlin and Sallye Wilkinson were defensive players. Kathy Seilhammer displayed aggressiveness in gaining possession of the ball. Ruth Benedict made excellent outside shots, and Karen Kugler aided in rebounding for the team. Miss Cheryl Finafrock coached the varsity team and was aided by Lisa Downin, statistician, and by Vicki Sanders and Kelly Martin, team managers.

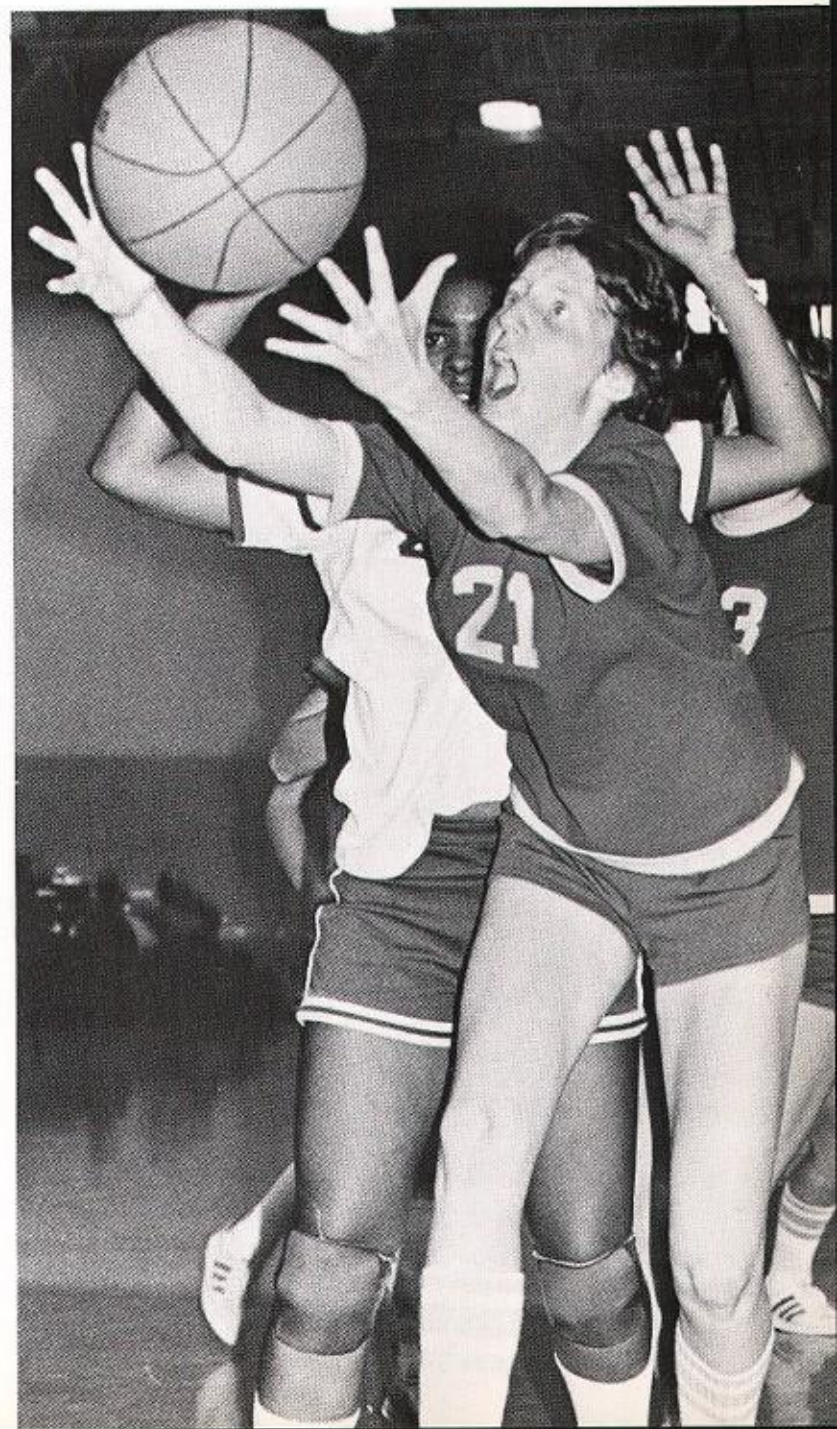

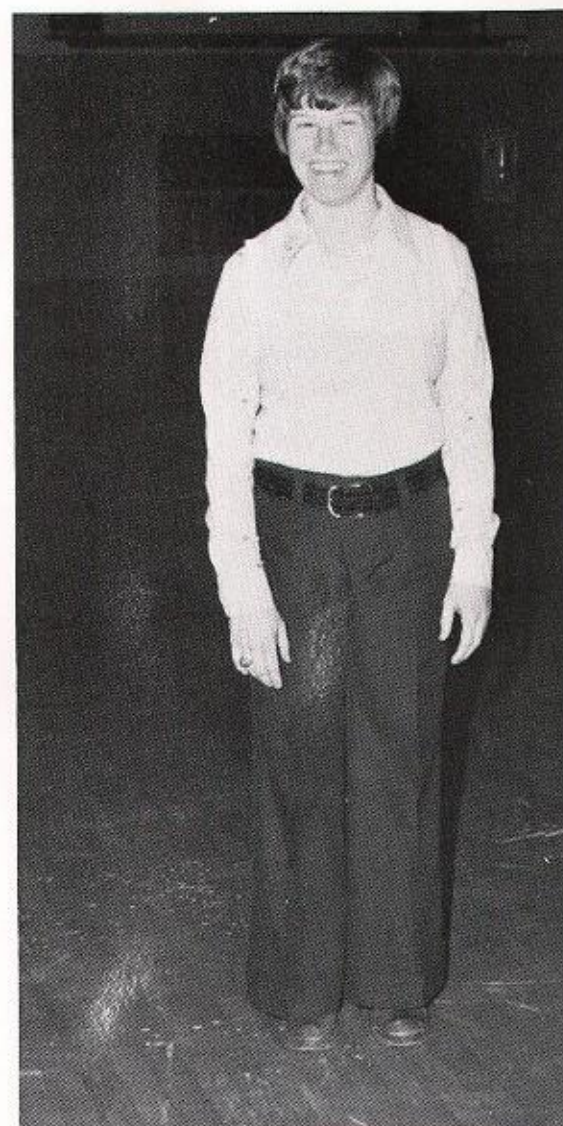

The junior varsity team was coached by Miss Edna Rice. Kim Howe played in the last two varsity games and was the second highest scorer in the home game with James Buchanan.

In addition to playing regularly scheduled games the varsity team participated in the Tri-State Girls Basketball Tournament. Although they lost to Thomas Johnson, the Maidens placed second by outscoring North High and Westminster. Margie Beard and Wendy Emery were selected by their team members to represent the Maidens on the Franklin County girls basketball all star team.

Maiden Harriers Have Excellent Season!

It's a streak of gold! It's a bluebird! No, It's a Maiden!

Yes, the flash of blue far in the lead at all the WASHS track meets of '75 was a lady harrier doing her best for the Blue-n-Gold.

For the second year in a row Zip Zehler's strong and speedy team took the South Penn Athletic League Championship Meet. The girls swept all their meets for a final 10-0 record, making the two year old team tops in the league. The Maidens have never been defeated in team competition and possess a record of eighteen consecutive wins.

At the District III Meet in May, 1975, the Maidens competed for a chance to go to the state championships. Diane Deegan, Bonnie Zehler, Sara Robinson, and Judy Welty comprised the 880 relay medley team. They not only did well in District III, but also are now the state champions in that event having run a fine race at Penn State University.

The Maidens lost only eight seniors from a thirty-one woman team, and are looking forward to an equally outstanding year in '76 with the return of many promising underclassmen.

Diamondmen Face Trying Season

Row 1: M. McFerren, K. Rock, C. Walck, R. Mitchell, B. Wolff, R. Hersh (coach). Row 2: D. Wagaman, B. Smetzer, M. Small, J. Arendt, D. Berger, K. Jamison. Row 3: J. Blubaugh, T. Dill, T. Brennan, B. Benchoff, E. McQuait, G. Fortney, L. Selman.

Coach Hersh's diamondmen had trouble this year. Although the team was composed of many outstanding sportsmen, they ended their season with a 3-11 record. The Li'l Injuns presented a 4-3 slate which gives WASHS hope for a brighter year to come in Indian baseball.

Gymnastics Team Is Formed At WASHS

Row 1: R. George (manager), H. Minnich, D. Rosenberger, P. Hovis, M. Baker. Row 2: A. Margin, M. Shank. Row 3: K. Wilhide, T. Wilhide, D. Hull, J. Gingrich, K. Cline.

The girls gymnastics team is new at WASHS this year. According to Bob Beaumont, gymnast and able coach who is also a newcomer to Waynesboro, "The girls worked on improving gymnastics skills and showmanship." They demonstrated their prowess on the uneven parallel bars, on the balance beam, and in floor exercise and vaulting.

The budding gymnasts had only four scheduled meets this year. They ended the season with an even 2-2 record, losing to the more experienced Cedar Cliff and Carlisle teams, but downing Chambersburg twice.

At the close of the season, five Maiden gymnasts qualified for the tri-county gymnastics championships. Other girls who did not qualify participated in the novice meet. We hope to see growing interest in this sport in the future.

School Life

School Board And Administration

School Board: Howard C. Hutton (assistant secretary), Ernest Rock, Charles H. Hunsecker (secretary), Paul F. Chalfant (vice-president), Dr. Richard A. Alias (president), W. Glenn Rowe Jr. (treasurer), Richard D. Eigenbrode, David A. McCarney, Dr. Gerald A. Bottorff.

Administration: Dr. John J. Grogan (assistant to the superintendent), Dr. William J. Leary Jr. (superintendent), Lewis R. Purnell (curriculum supervisor).

The board of school directors and the administrative staff of the Waynesboro Area School District would like to thank the graduates of the class of 1976 for their many contributions to our school district. The class of '76 exemplifies the achievements and character that our community has come to expect. Best wishes to each of you for a happy, productive and wholesome future!

WASHS Welcomes New Assistant Principal

Waynesboro Area Senior High School wishes to extend a cordial welcome to Mrs. Dee Ann Fine, our new assistant principal.

Mrs. Fine enjoys many sports including swimming, scuba diving, tennis, water and snow skiing. She likes to sew, refinish antique furniture, read, and do needlework. She finds our community very lovely.

Dee Ann Fine attended several universities. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in health and physical education at Lockhaven State College. She has also attended the University of Colorado and the State Universities of New York including Geneseo, Oswego, Ithaca College, and Keuka College. She received her Master of Education degree in developmental and remedial reading. She is presently working on her doctorate in administration and education at the Pennsylvania State University.

Mr. Barlup's assistant enjoys her job very much. She is very impressed with the behavior and the attitude of our students. She feels they are "very unique" in their manners and "above average" in their courteous behavior. She finds the staff extremely co-operative and supportive. In her visits to the classrooms, Dee Ann Fine has found superior teaching.

Mrs. Fine's main goal at WASHS is to provide the best education possible to all students.

Philippine Influence At WASHS

WASHS welcomes the 1975-76 American Field Service exchange student, Maria Cristina Valencia, known to her friends as Bing. Bing comes from a family of eight. She has three sisters and two brothers. She is from Sagpon, Daraga, Albay in the Philippines. She is enjoying her first visit to the United States very much. Bing thinks that Waynesboro is a tiny, nice, clean town, and she describes our students as "jolly and friendly."

Bing has made several impressions about the differences between the two countries. She feels that the Philippine people are more conservative. The girls in the Philippines predominantly wear dresses although they also wear jeans. Filipinos do not approve of girls smoking. Bing has found our school work easier than her work in the Philippines. She enjoys singing, playing the guitar, and doing art work. She enjoys our sport of basketball and also likes our rock bands and our school bands. Her favorite foods here are fried chicken and ice cream. Bing has met many new people and experienced new things like snow and skiing.

Bing finds the John Buterbaugh family, with whom she is living, to be extremely nice. They have been very understanding, and they have shared with her many experiences enjoyed by Americans. They have given her the opportunity to take piano lessons, and they have helped her to learn about our nation.

Bing is going back to the Philippines in July. She is a warm and delightful person and we are pleased that she attended WASHS this year.

Kay Lininger

This year's Franklin County Junior Miss was a gallant affair with eighteen girls competing for the title. Seven WASHS girls tried their talents and skill on the night of September 20, 1975. Talents varied from a modern dance routine by Susan Honodel to a dramatic presentation of ANNA AND THE KING OF SIAM by Kay Lininger. Other talents included Debbie Emory's vocal solo and piano selections by Sharon Bumbaugh, Debra Hughes, and Linda Willhide. Jane Bollinger did a 1776 dramatic presentation of Betsy Ross. Later the girls joined forces in a bicentennial dance routine to the music, "My Country."

1975-76 Homecoming Queen, Wendy Emery.

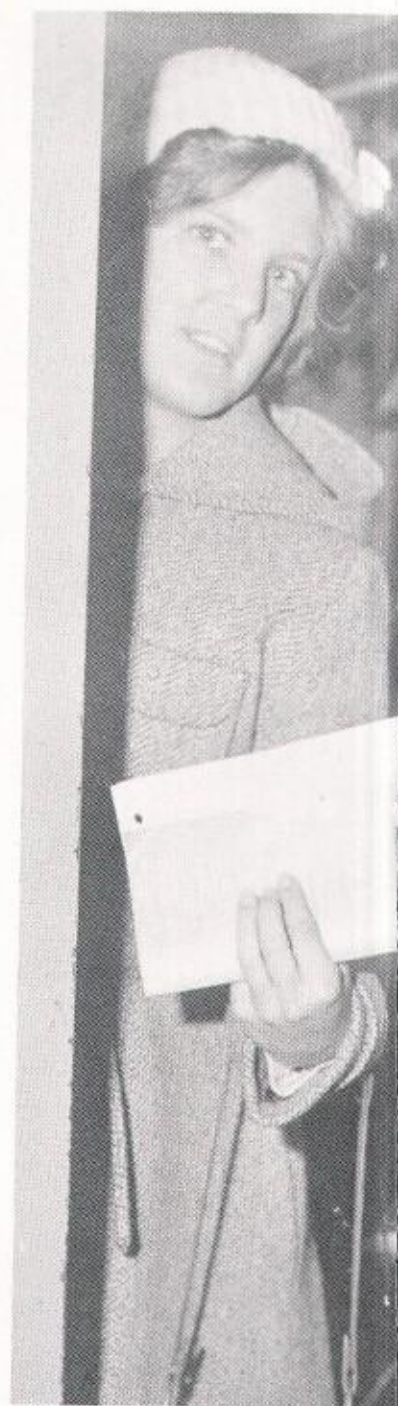

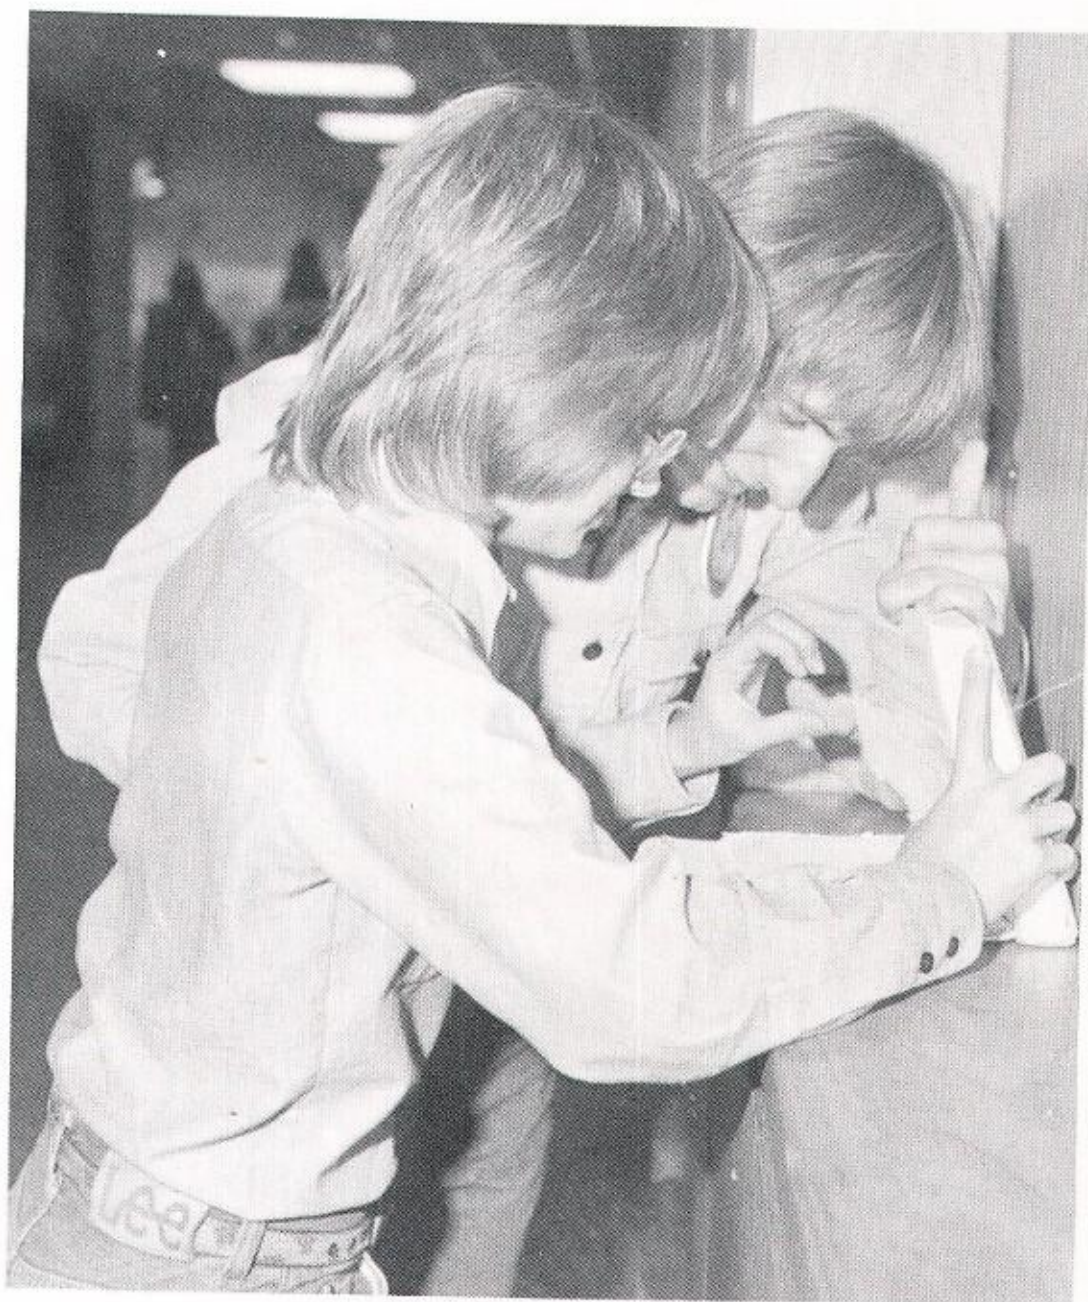

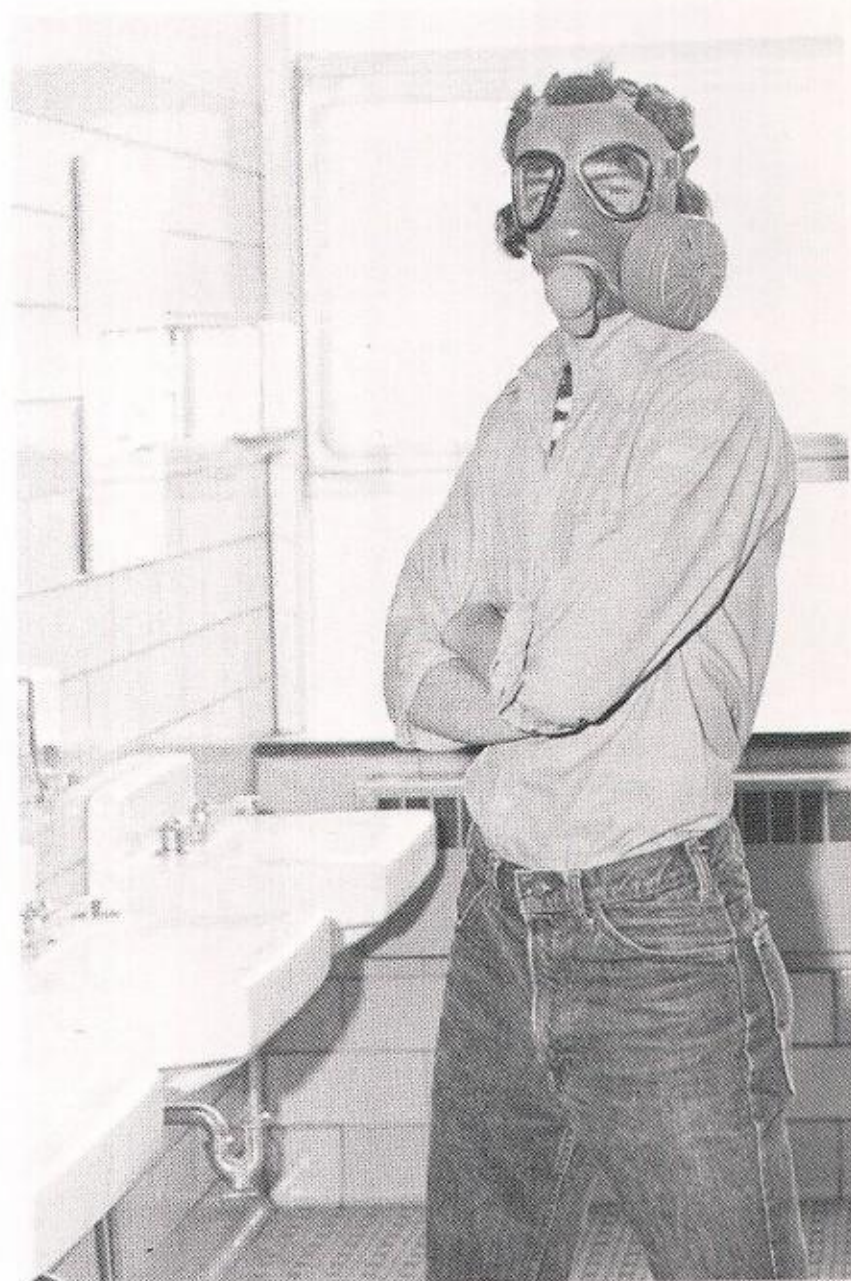

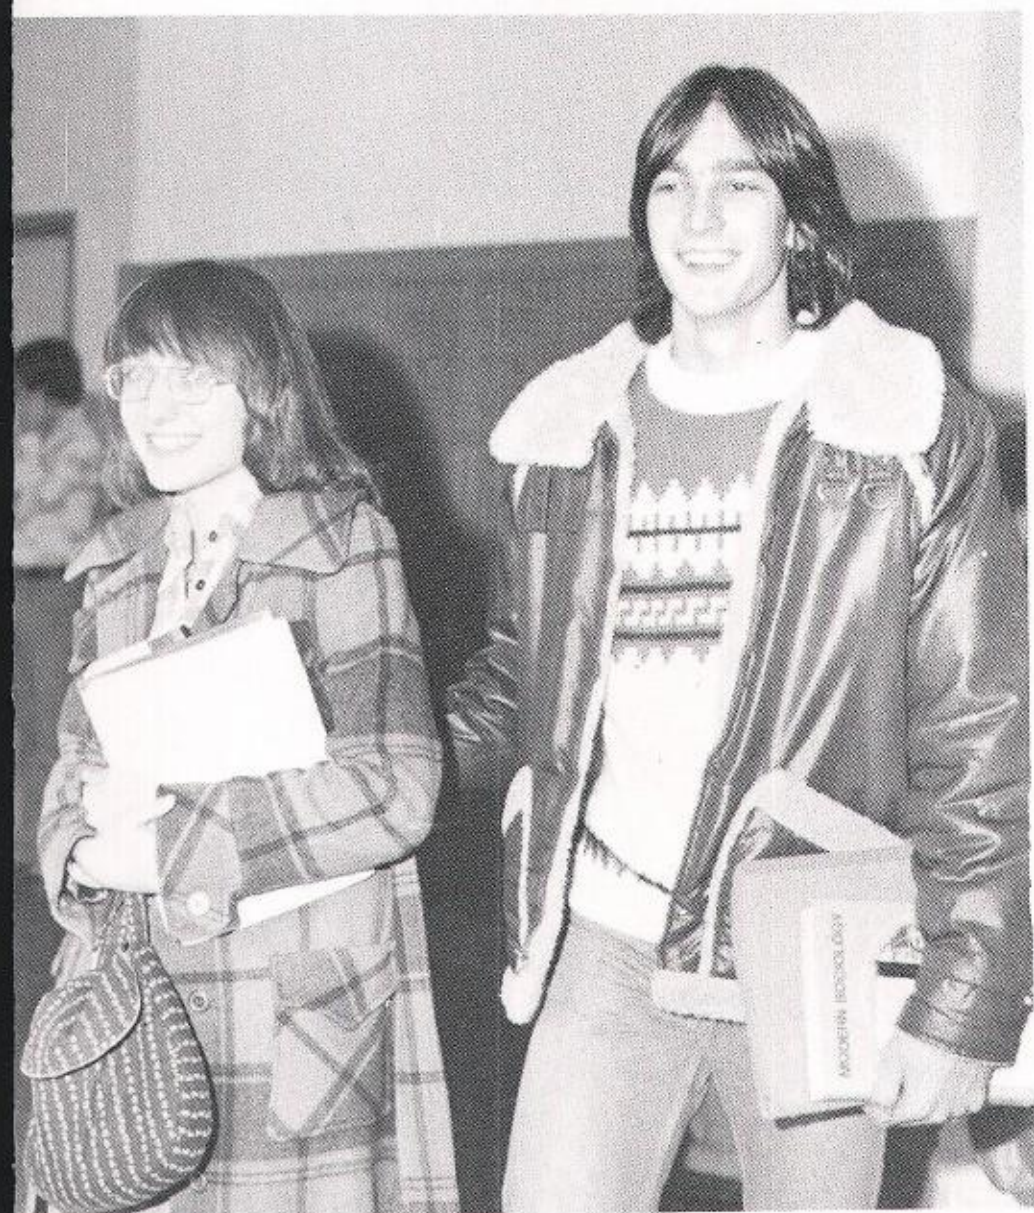

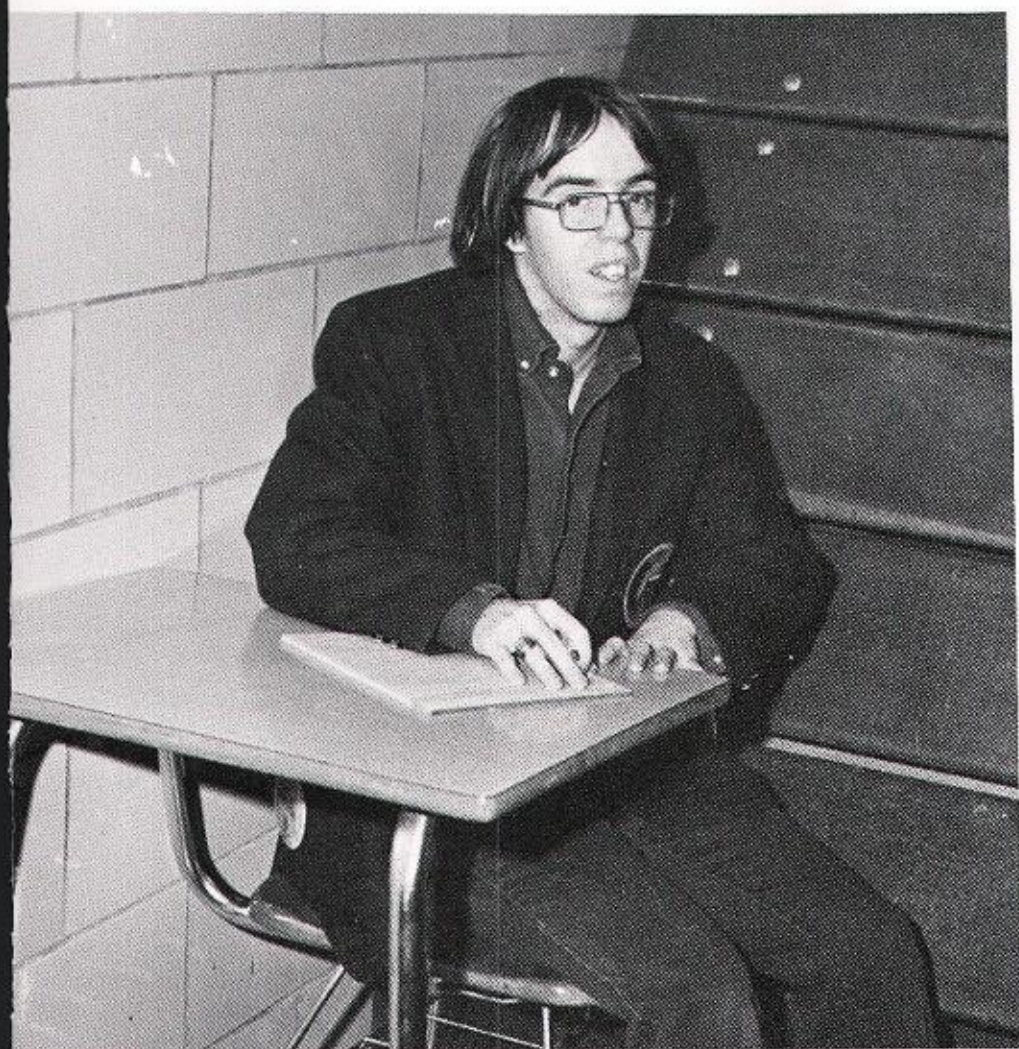

The 1975 homecoming was once again a gala at WASHS. After a rousing pep rally on Friday October 17th, the Indian gridders went on to defeat the South Carroll Cavaliers by a 28 - 7 score on Saturday the 18th.

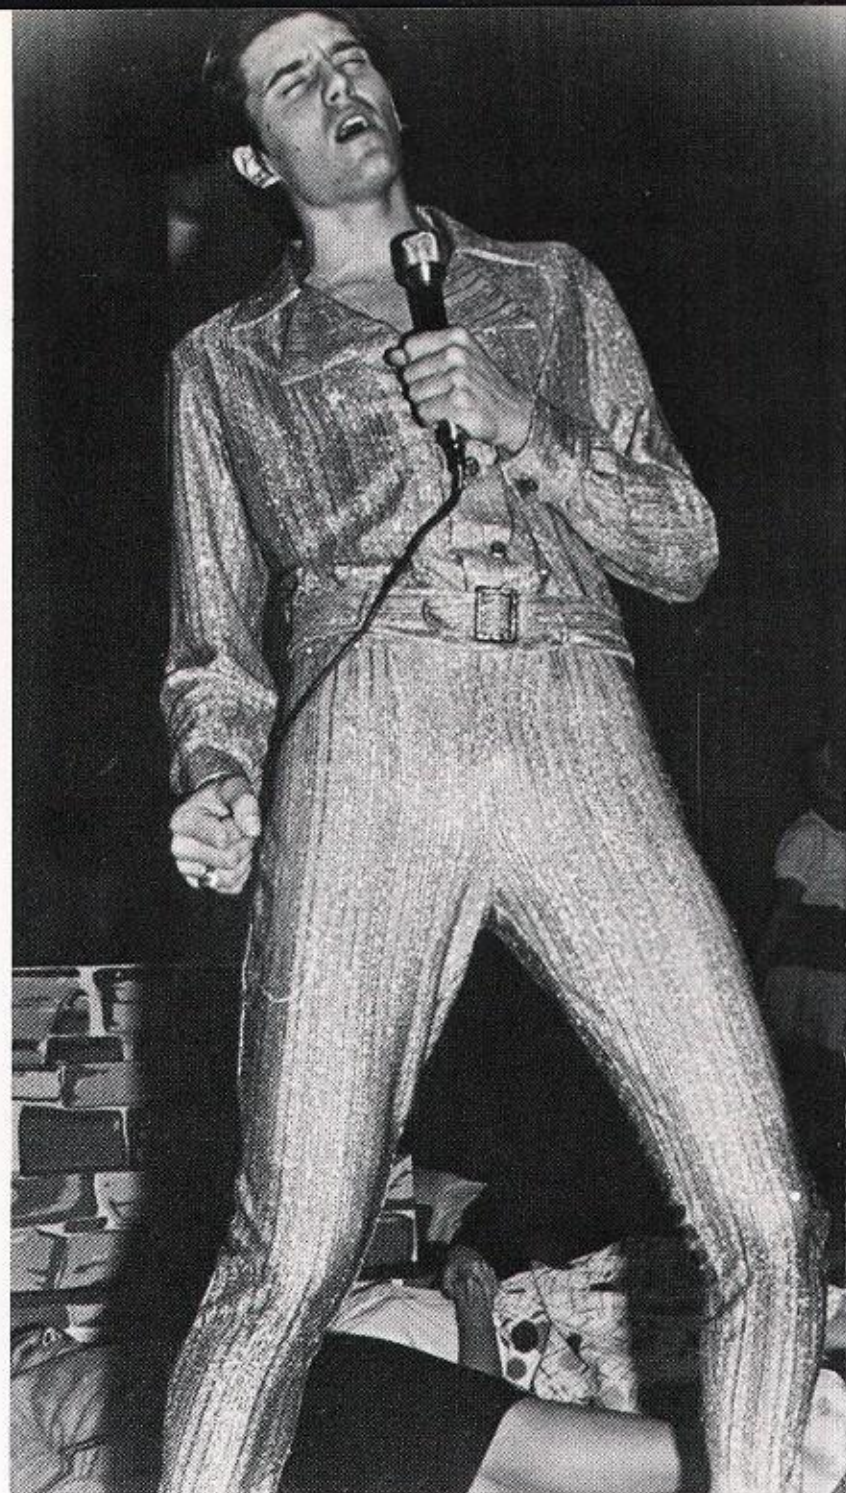

The Indian band's performance was centered around the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Wendy Emery. Wendy reigned over the annual homecoming dance held in the cafeteria on Saturday evening. Music was provided by Quail Hollow.

The audience thrilled to this comedy of the fifties as the crude Conrad Birdie wiggled his way through Sweetapple, Ohio on March 20, 21, and 22, 1975. On his last appearance before entering the army, the rock star gave "One Last Kiss" to young Kim MacAfee, a typical American teen. Unfortunately, the rest of Sweetapple was not as enthusiastic about the coarse Conrad as the teenage girls. Birdie's manager, Albert Peterson, frantically tried to keep the peace as things in the small town were turned upside down. Rosie, Albert's faithful secretary and fiancée of eight years, followed in his wake, vainly attempting to soothe the irate adults and combat Albert's overpowering mother, Mae, in an all-out struggle for Albert!

Joel Nogle and Beth Shank, two of Waynesboro's brighter stars in recent years, gave outstanding performances in their final WASHS dramatic presentation. Mark Michaels, then a senior in his first leading role, did an equally fine job as the sensuous Conrad.

A talented cast and a hardworking stage crew made the show a success. Special mention must be made of the original sets and authentic fifties costumes.

Mr. Tom Rocks, directing an all school production for the first time with his wife Kathy as choreographer, put together a spirited show. Once again, the music department, under the direction of Gerald Kowallis and Asher Edelman, was the backbone of another memorable play in school history.

The ever-popular "Oklahoma" returned to Waynesboro in '75 as the teachers once again graced the WASHS stage. The cast of faculty members was scarcely recognizable in their roles as they turned in three worthy performances.

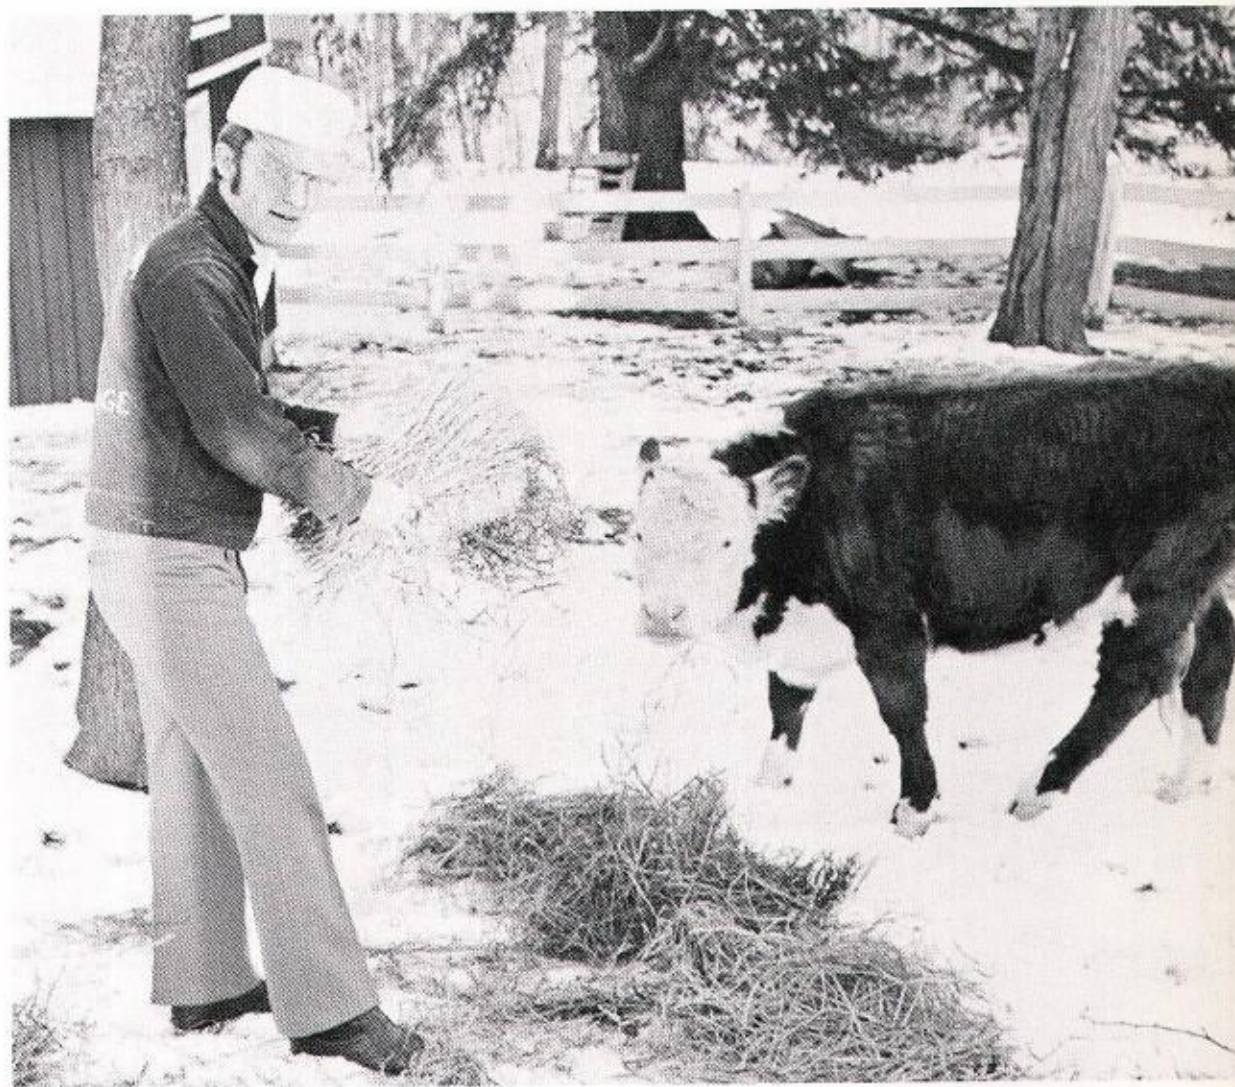

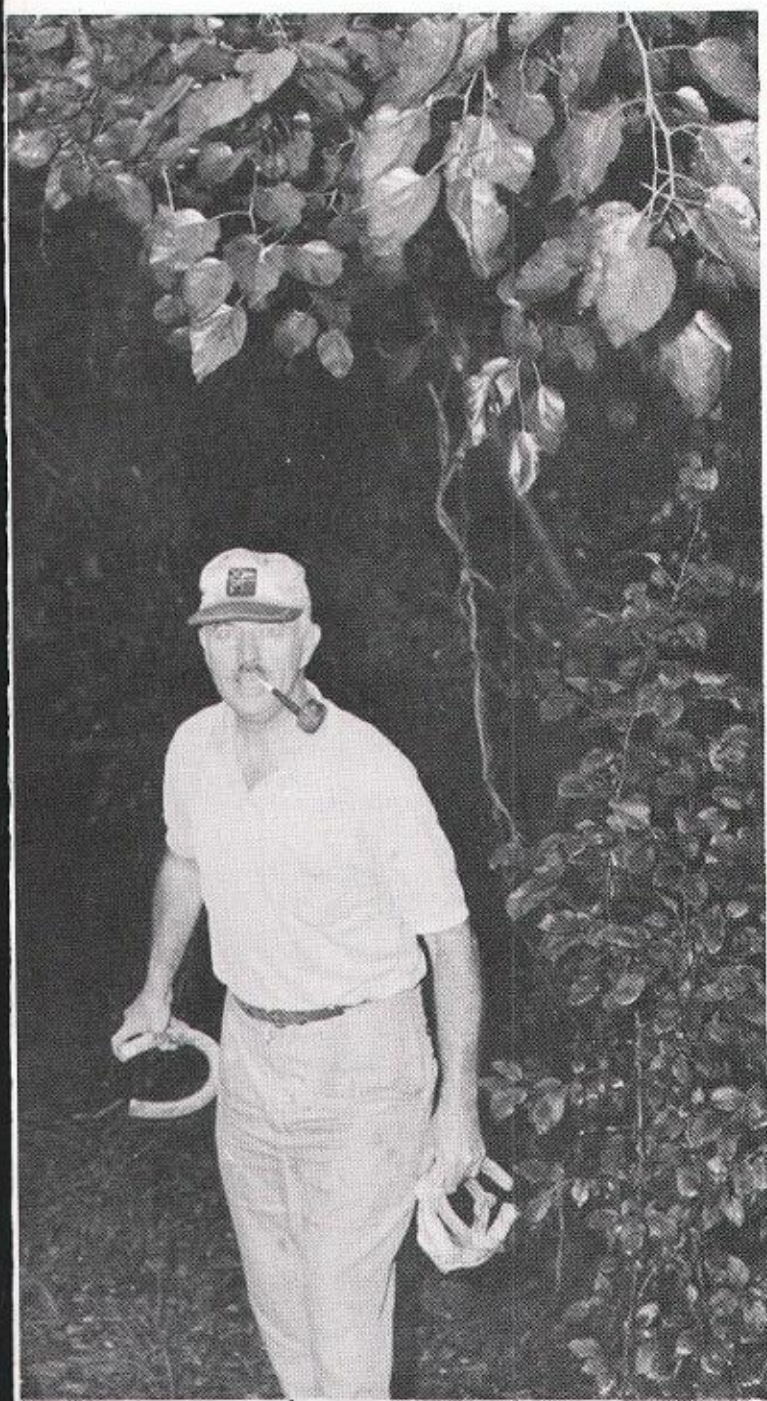

The play was held on November 20, 21, and 22 and was sponsored by the Waynesboro Area Education Association. The WAEA uses the proceeds of the production to finance scholarships for several students each year.

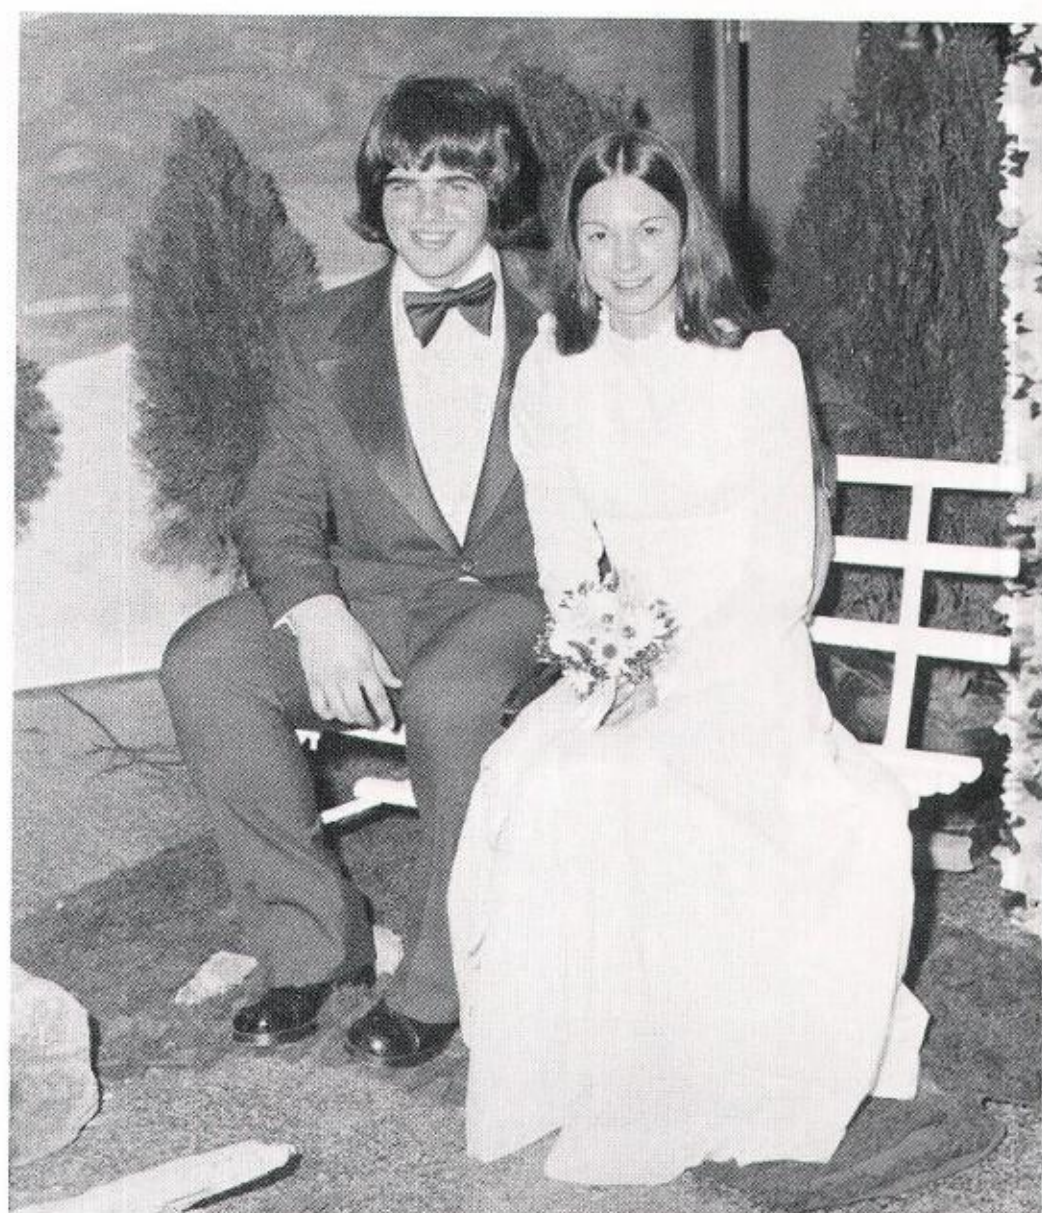

"Oklahoma!" Is Hailed A Success

Have You Ever Seen An Indian Sunset?

The class of '76 gave a good imitation of one this year, inspired by the "Indian Spirit" under the direction of Mr. Eversole and Mrs. May. About eight committees of hardworking juniors were pressed into action just two weeks before the big night. After many hours of hard labor and frenzied attempts to produce just the right effect, they wound up their chicken wire and wiped up their paint only hours before the doors opened to admit the expectant guests.

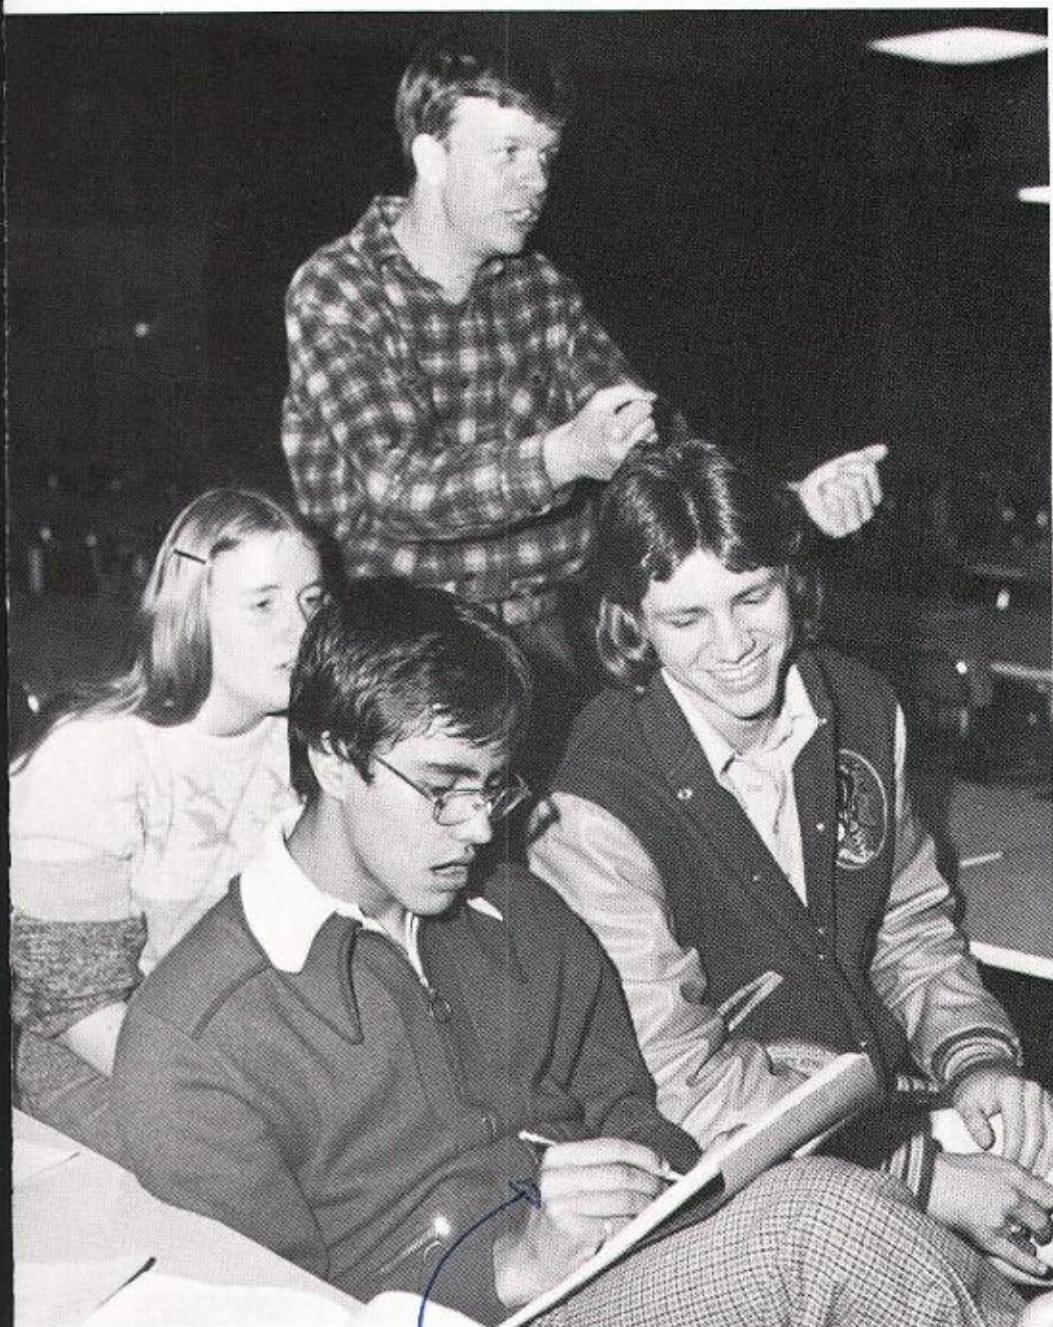

Beginning at eight o'clock on the evening of April 18th, the students began to arrive, decked out in all their splendor. The lovely gowns and matching tuxedos displayed by many couples made the familiar gymnasium and cafeteria a breathtaking spectacle. Couples danced and dreamed to the music of "Marcus Hooke." The hardworking refreshment committee provided goodies which were enjoyed by all those seated at the small tables in the dining area.

At the end of the evening the graduates of '75 were well satisfied with their farewell from the exhausted juniors, who glowed with the knowledge that their efforts were responsible for one of the best proms ever to grace the halls of WASHS.

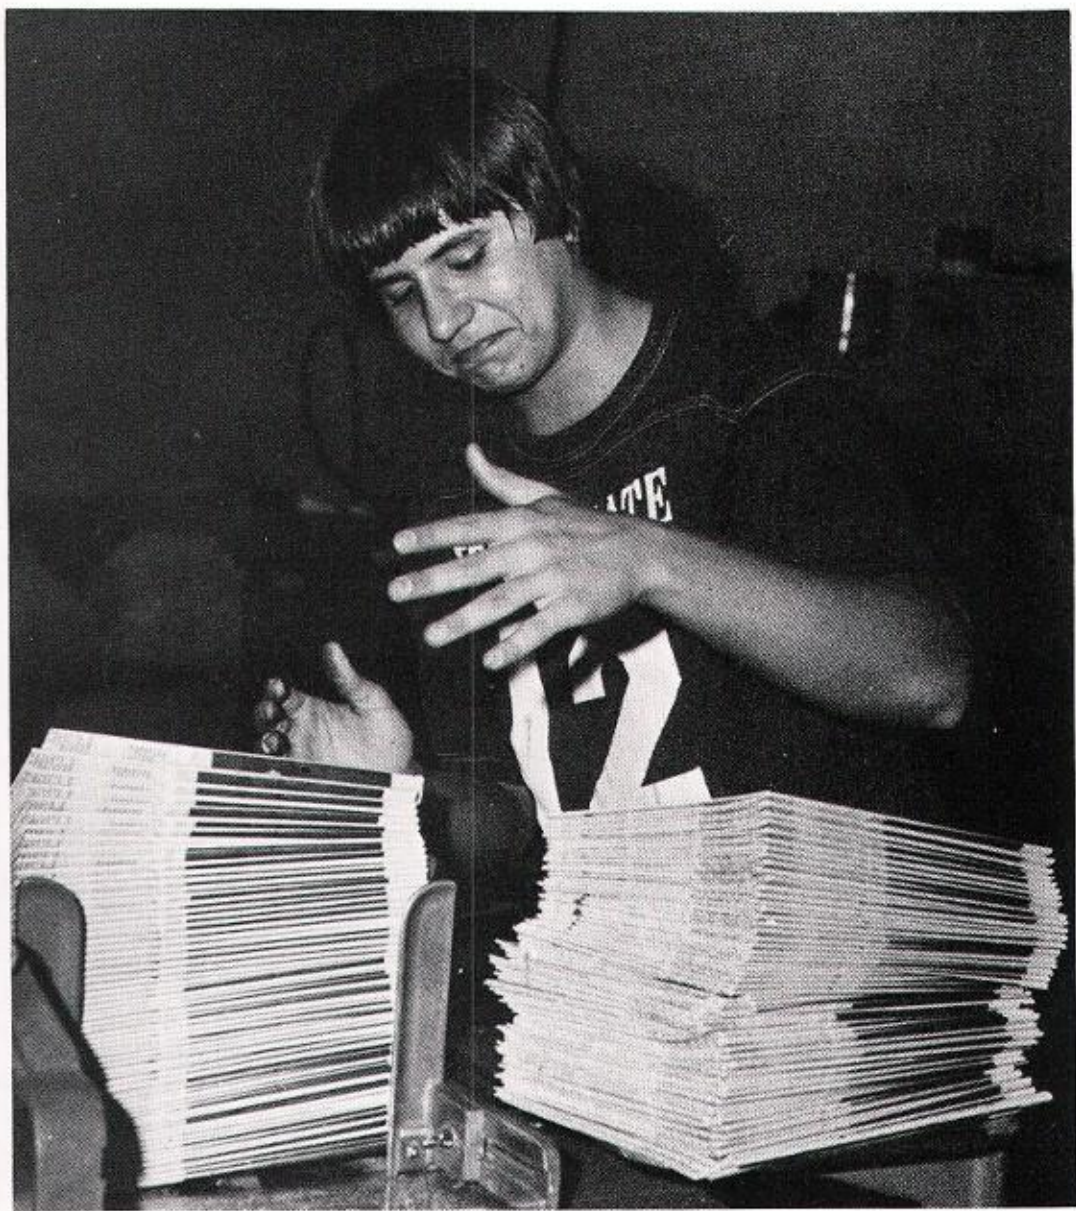

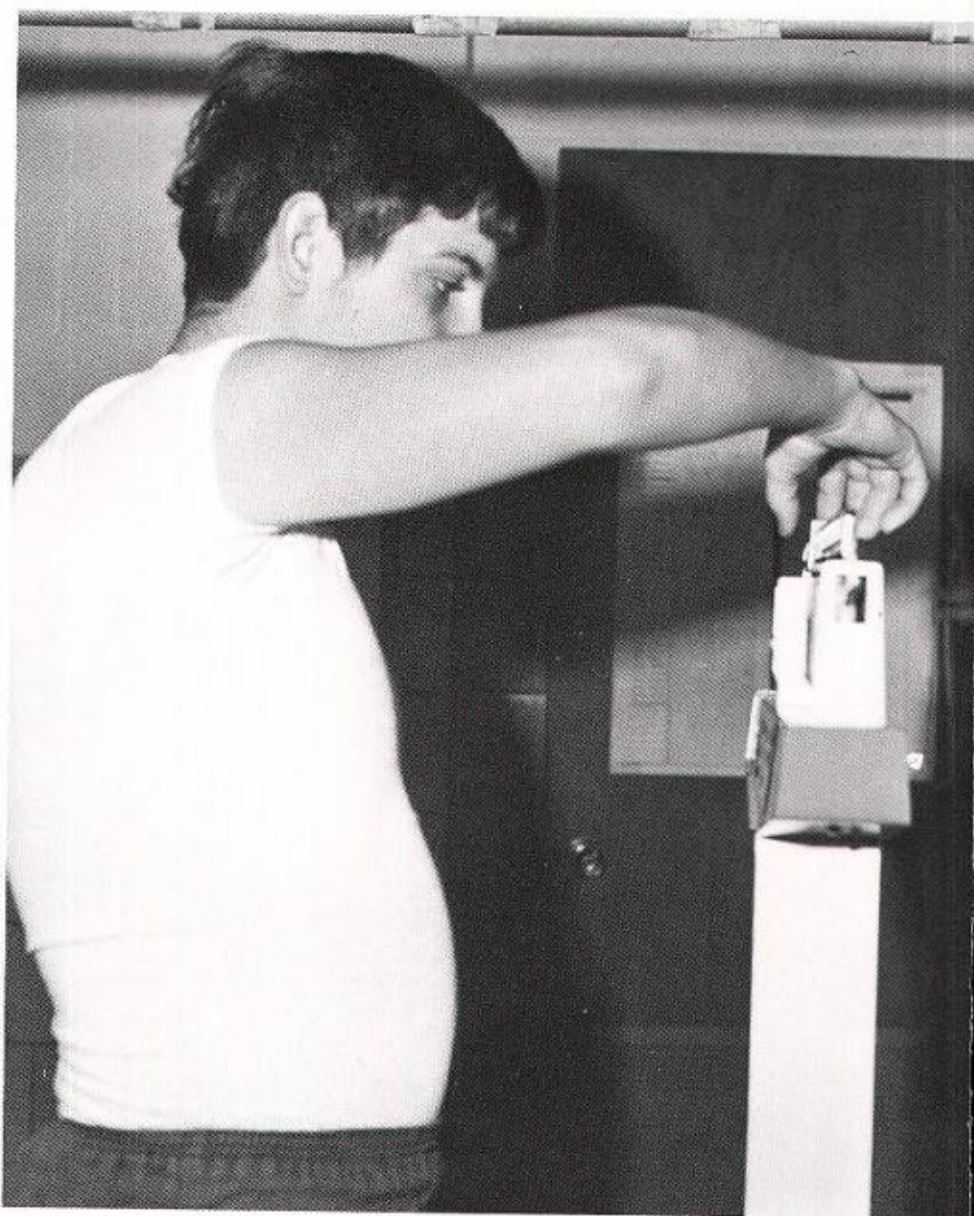

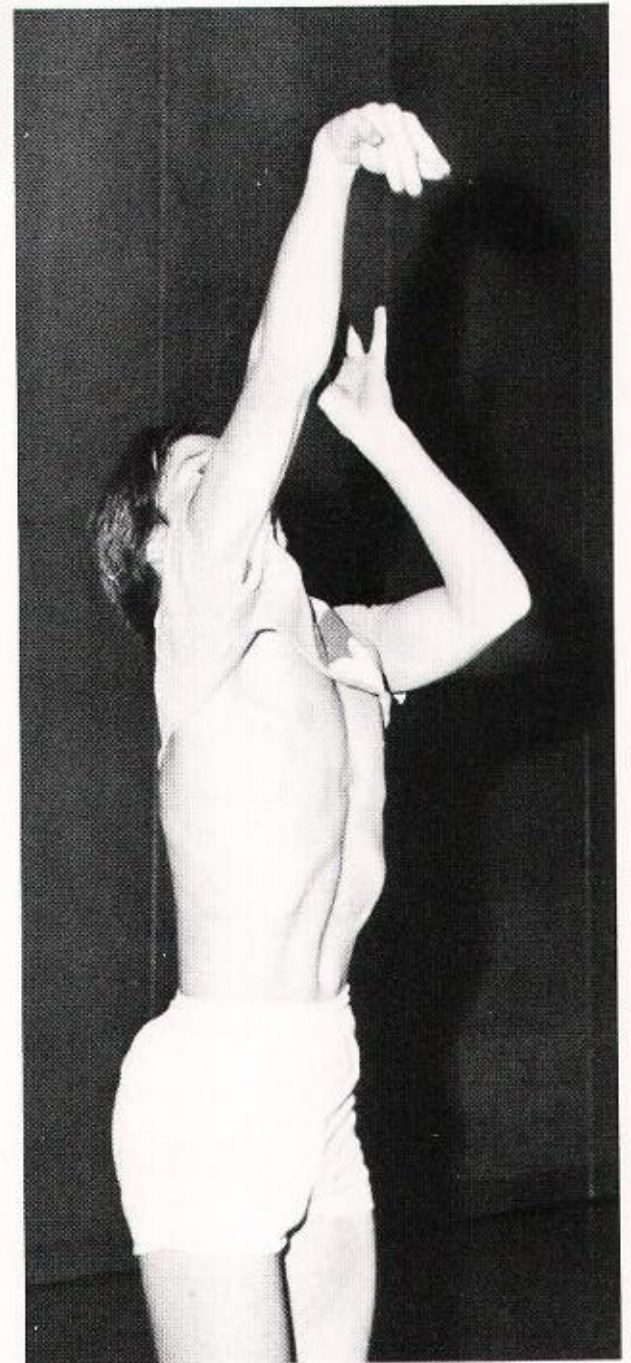

Mr Wherman:
I am very glad the year is over, but I am not very glad to leave my friends. And you are a good friend. I hope I get to see you in a couple of years

WASHS Welcomes Vietnamese

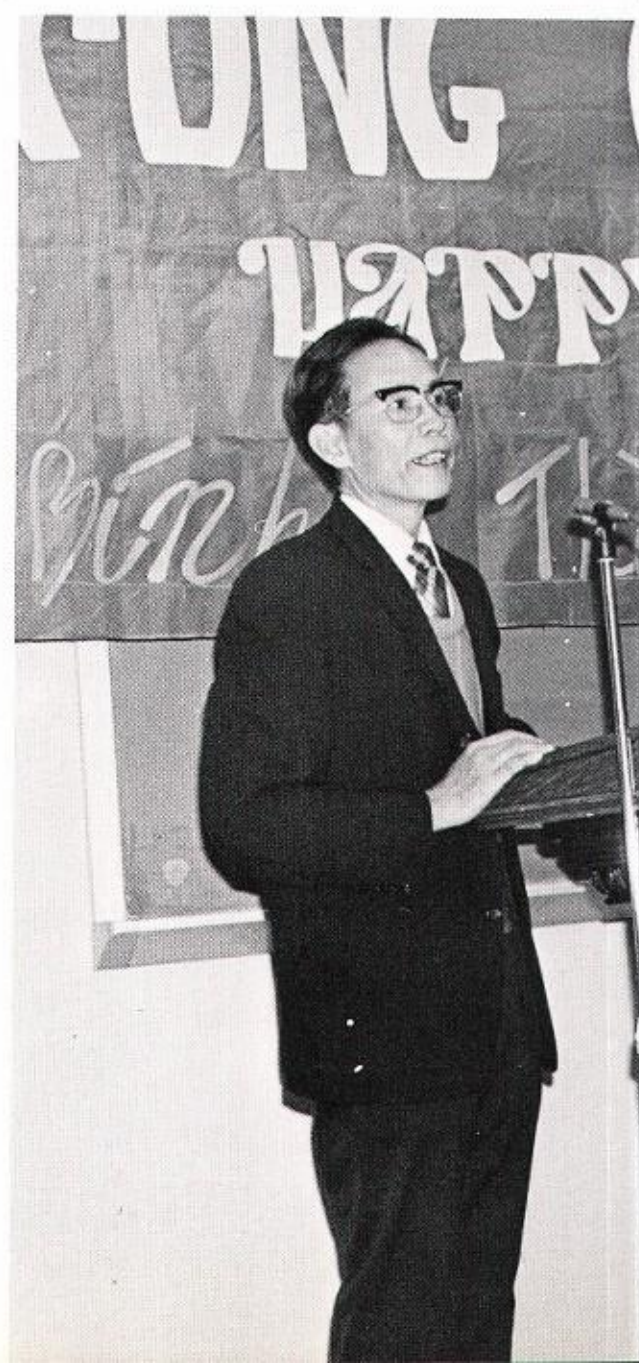

Lan Ngoc Thi Nguyen, Minh Dang Nguyen, Tuan Dang Nguyen, Dung Ngoc Thi Nguyen, Thuong Thi Tran, Can Dang Nguyen, Van Ngoc Thi Nguyen, Mai Ngoc Thi Nguyen.

Lan Ngoc Thi Nguyen arrived in Waynesboro in July 1975. Sponsored by the Waynesboro Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Cans are one of sixteen Vietnamese families who now live in Franklin County. The Cans are from North Vietnam. Lan has two brothers and three sisters. She is a junior and she is the only Vietnamese student attending WASHS.

Lan found many differences between her American and Vietnamese educational experiences. She believes that the studies in her Vietnamese school were more difficult than are those at WASHS. She feels that her Vietnamese teachers give a lot more homework than American teachers do. As a student in Vietnam Lan primarily studied Vietnamese literature, French and English. One of the things she likes about WASHS is that she can take a wider selection of courses. She especially enjoys Mr. Conover's course in American history. Lan was very surprised when she entered her first study hall at WASHS. She was even more surprised to find that most WASHS students talk instead of study. In Vietnam Lan went to school six days a week for almost eight hours a day. At 11:45 A.M. she went home for lunch, returning at 2:30 P.M. Lan wore a uniform to school, and was not allowed to have a job, even during the three month summer vacation.

Although in Lan's school in Vietnam there were no organized sports for girls, the boys participated in several athletic activities, including volleyball, football and basketball. Lan enjoyed the WASHS football games this fall.

The Dai family was sponsored by the Waynesboro Presbyterian Church and the Church of the Brethren in Waynesboro. Dou, 6, and Loan, 7, attend Summitview Elementary School. Quyên, 4, attends nursery school at the Trinity United Church of Christ.

Row 1: Quyên Thuy Vuong, Dao Huu Vuong, Loan Thuy Vuong. Row 2: Dai Huu Vuong, Ngoc Thi Nguyen.

These three young men have graduated from high school in Vietnam. They work in Waynesboro and live with their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Doxzon.

Hoi Lam, Sanh Quang Lam, Dai Quang Dau.

During the first three days of the first month in the lunar calendar, the Vietnamese celebrate the Tet New Year. At midnight on the last day of the lunar year, people set off firecrackers, shoot guns and light campfires. The women cook special rice cakes. The cakes are made of sticky rice, green beans, black pepper and ham and they are usually wrapped in banana or bamboo leaves. As the festival continues, the people visit each other, exchange gifts and give each other special New Year flowers. The more wealthy people give the children money when they return to school after the holiday. This custom is called lixi.

On Friday evening, January 30, 1976, more than 150 Vietnamese and Americans gathered at the Waynesboro Evangelical Lutheran Church to celebrate the coming of the year of the Dragon. The Vietnamese decorated the party room with a beautiful poster and the special Tet tree pictured above. Nguyen Thi Ngoc, now living in Waynesboro, created this tree. She decorated bare branches with yellow blossoms meticulously cut out of paper in the finest detail and delicately folded.

Both Vietnamese and American families prepared food for the New Year supper. Everyone especially appreciated this opportunity to enjoy cuisine from both cultures.

Mr. Can and Mr. Quang gave speeches about their new life in America. The people are thankful for the blessings and happiness they have found in America. They also feel sadness because they miss their families, friends and jobs in Vietnam.

I'll be a mug shot of me! It was real

Thanks to the overwhelming support given to us by the patrons of Waynesboro and surrounding communities, we were able to publish this year's edition of THE WAYARIAN. Without their financial reinforcement this endeavor could never have been accomplished. Therefore, we express our appreciation for their vested interest by having dedicated the preceding portion of the yearbook to them.

P.S. A Special Thanks to the Record Herald Sports Staff for their many fine pictures.
